

Ellenville Home Fire On Sunday

Loss Is $50,000
At Slutsky Place

The original residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Slutsky of the Falls View Hotel, Ellenville, was wrecked by fire early Sunday morning with an estimated loss of $50,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Slutsky and the 18 guests in the place escaped when Mr. Slutsky went through the two-story and basement building warning the guests of the danger.

It was stated today the fire probably started in the basement where one of the employees was using a portable electric heater. A further investigation was being made today, a spokesman at the hotel stated.

Spreads From Cellar

Fire was discovered about 5 a. m. Sunday in the basement of the two-story English lodge-type building. It spread upward to the roof and the upper floor and roof were considerably damaged by fire which was battled by Ellenville firemen.

Located some 250 yards from the main Falls View Hotel on Larenkill Road, the house was built by Slutsky and was the original building on the premises. It was known as the "winter house" and was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Slutsky. It also accommodated guests. There were approximately 15 rooms in the house, a spokesman at the hotel said today.

Belongings Damaged

Personal belongings of the guests, badly damaged by smoke and water, were being removed today. It was stated that much of the personal property could be cleaned and returned to the guests.

"About 90 per cent of the personal belongings of the guests will be salvaged, cleaned and returned," a hotel spokesman said. Due to the warning given by Slutsky, all fled to safety and there were no injuries.

Will Be Torn Down

Damage by fire, smoke and water was so severe the wrecked building will be demolished. Although the fire started in the basement, the flames made their way to the upper portion and the roof was badly burned.

State police from the Ellenville station were summoned and went to the scene and participated in the investigation.

Located some distance from the main hotel buildings, none were threatened.

12 Persons Lose Lives in State During Weekend

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Twelve persons, including a seven-month-old baby, lost their lives in accidents in New York State over the weekend.

Six were killed on the highways. Two died in a Long Island fire. Four were victims of other mishaps between 6 p. m. Friday and midnight Sunday.

Young Bonnie Beckley was killed and her grandfather was injured critically Sunday when their automobile was in a collision with a truck on icy pavement near Lodi, in Seneca County.

Bonnie was in the arms of her mother, Mrs. Virgil Beckley, who suffered only minor injuries. The Beckleys live in the Town of Burdett, near Watkins Glen in Schuyler County.

The baby's grandfather, Willis Willie Beckley, 57, also of Burdett, remained in the hospital today at Geneva General Hospital. Police said he was driving the automobile.

At Bethpage, on Long Island, Albert Vermette and his wife, Veronica, both 50, died Friday night when a fire swept their home.

Other weekend fatalities:

Maj. Douglas Knowlton, 156th Adviser Is Feted

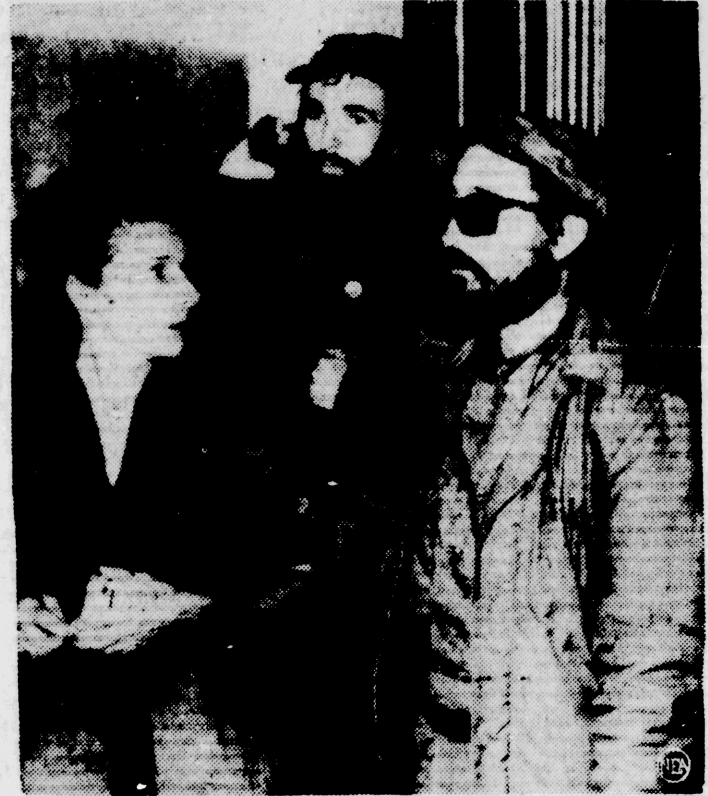

Officers of the 156th Field Artillery Battalion, New York National Guard, and their wives honored Maj. Douglas Knowlton, U. S. Army advisor to the local battalion since January, 1956, at a testimonial dinner held Saturday evening at Hotel Kingston.

Approximately 75 guests paid tribute to Maj. Knowlton who has been reassigned to the Artillery and Missile School, Fort Sill, Okla., for an advanced course prior to his assignment to special duty at Fort Clayton, Canal Zone, in July. Maj. and Mrs. Knowlton and their two sons, Douglas Jr., 9, and Donald, 5, will leave Kingston for his new assignment next week.

Maj. Arthur H. Marx, executive officer of the battalion, served as toastmaster and Lt. Col. Frank W. Harkin, commanding officer, gave the testimonial address in which he praised Maj. Knowlton and expressed the appreciation of the battalion for his guidance.

Maj. Knowlton, born in Waterville, Maine, entered Army service in November, 1942, entered Officer Candidate School at Fort Sill and was commissioned a second lieutenant in the artillery in August, 1943. While serving at Fort Bragg, N. C., he met and later married the former Carolyn Price of Lumberton, N. C.

He served in the European Theatre with the 74th Field Artillery, an 8-inch Howitzer unit. Following World War II and service in the Army of Occupation until July 1946, he entered the U. S. Army Reserve as captain, Artillery and returned to civilian employment with the Navy Department at Portsmouth, N. H. Navy Yard, commanding officer, gave the testi-

Study Begins on How To Improve Schooling

At an important all day meeting of the chief school administrators of the central schools of Ulster County, plans for educational and curriculum improvements were studied and discussed.

The meeting was held last Friday at the offices of the Board of Cooperative Educational Services of Ulster County, 12 John Street here. Those attending were: Clarence Johnson, executive officer and superintendent of District 2; Reginald R. Bennett, District superintendent of District 1; Lester J. Roosa, District superintendent of District 3 and Henry Hopper, coordinator for the Cooperative Board.

Principals Attend
The supervising principals attending the party were John Moehle of Ontario, Frederick Dippel of New Paltz, Hubert Perkins of Highland, Robert Robinson of Walkkill, Joseph Robinson of the Highland Training School, Paul Georgini representing Edmund J. Alvert of Marlboro, who was unable to attend due to hospitalization at the Newburgh Hospital, Jack Braun of Ellenville, and Edward T. Green of Rondout Valley.

The purpose of the meeting was to begin to study and discuss how the central schools of Ulster County could better improve their instructional programs in curriculum and special education. Also, definite indications were given by the administrators for the desire to work out the problems of vocational education for our children, study the possibilities of classes for the retarded and trainable, investigate the organization of a Cerebral Palsy Center in coordination with the Ulster County Cerebral Palsy Clinic.

Future Cooperative Council
Both administration and the superintendents showed interest in organizing a permanent administrative council to help advise and assist the Cooperative Board in their educational planning and staffing for the future.

Superintendent Johnson explained the benefits of this proposal and its immediate advantage in the near future.

Superintendent Hopper explained to the administrators that the members of the board and the superintendents felt that there was a need in this organization to be closer to the center of the county and the central schools. In turn, the board is presently investigating the problem of finding adequate office facilities and parking space in or around the village of New Paltz.

Curriculum Coordination
To help explain in detail what the potentials of a well organized coordinated program would be, Hopper invited George Fernandez, presently supervisor of instruction for the Cooperative

No Cost Mentioned
The committee made no direct recommendation but said its survey "strongly suggests" that the state should provide health insurance for unemployed workers who can't afford it themselves.

The Joint Legislative Committee on Health Insurance Plans reported Sunday that less than half of unemployed workers in New York State had any health coverage.

Apparently, the committee said, health insurance is "one of the first things unemployed workers decide they must abandon when their regular income stops."

Both notes were received at the State Department Sunday. But even before the German peace treaty plan came in, officials said on the basis of a Moscow announcement Saturday that it was clearly unacceptable.

One of the provisions of the Soviet plan for Germany was that West Berlin should be converted into an unarmored free city until East and West Germany are reunited. Pending unification, the proposed peace treaty would be made with both the Communist East German regime — which the Western powers have declined to recognize — and the anti-Communist West German regime.

No Changes Indicated
Mikoyan in his talks in Washington and other cities has given no evidence of any weakening of Soviet policy on German questions.

If Mikoyan came here with any really new propositions or concessions in his pocket, they are still there, but many U. S. officials feel that he may spring a surprise when he sees Eisenhower.

The basis of this reasoning is that Soviet leaders, notably Khrushchev, have made no effort to hide their dislike of Secretary Dulles. It is felt, therefore, that if Khrushchev had an important card to play he would prefer that

9 Board Members Protest Against Raising Of Water Rents

Against Raising Of Water Rents

Nine Democratic city supervisors, through a recent request to Mayor Edwin F. Radel, join local aldermen in drastic criticism of the water board for its recent raise in water rents.

The new charge, is an "abominable increase," the supervisors hold, and they ask for action to return the water board "to its proper perspective."

Views of Aldermen

Alderman Samuel J. Perry (R) Fifth Ward at the Jan. 6 Common Council meeting, asked of the board, "Why are they giving us a thirty-three and one-third per cent increase, after they told us there would be no increase."

Majority Leader James K. Ryan (D) 10th Ward, Alderman William K. Bodenweber, (D) Ninth Ward, and Donald M. Hastings, (D) Third Ward, also criticized the board's action.

A water department spokesman said last week that the increase, based on the old faucet or fixture rates, was due, in part, to installation of meters for all consumers, but it was more largely due to increased cost of operations in the department.

Cites Variance

Alderman Bodenweber complained that during the meter installation program, some consumers on the new faucet rate will "be robbed" while those who get the meters early will "get away cheap."

The nine supervisors asked action of the mayor because of "the recent abominable increase in water rates, and the receipt of many complaints" as a result of it.

Dictatorial They Say

The supervisors said they felt that "there had been no consideration given as to the people's ability to withstand such an increase," and that "the present Board of Water Commissioners has been practicing dictatorial tactics in increasing the water rates without proper justification."

"Now therefore be it known," said the statement, "that we, the Democratic Members of the Ulster County Board of Supervisors, serving the City of Kingston, do hereby request His Honor, the Mayor of the City of Kingston, to take whatever legal measures necessary to return the Board of Water Commissioners to its proper perspective, wherein it will contain a true measure of the people's feelings, rather than that of a cast-off, and rebutted political machine."

It was signed by the nine: Christopher Perry Jr., Third Ward; Joseph J. Turck, Fourth; James P. Fiore, Fifth; Michael W. Melnik, Sixth; Thomas F. Coughlin, Seventh; Francis G. Clarke, Eighth; James T. McCordle, Ninth; James F. Howard, 10th, and Francis J. Dougherty, 13th.

1st Signs of Possible Clash Seen in Albany

By CHARLES DUMAS

Associated Press Staff Writer

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—The first signs of a possible clash between Gov. Rockefeller and conservative elements in his own Republican party appeared in the Legislature today.

As the 1959 session shifted into its working phase, the conservative wing posted a subtle notice for Liberal Republican Rockefeller that it still wields power and must be reckoned with.

It did so by reviving an issue that split the GOP sharply during the 1958 session and embarrassed Rockefeller during the election campaign.

Bring Up Relief Again

The issue is public relief, still a potential trouble maker. It was brought to the fore again Sunday night, when the chairman of the Senate and Assembly committees on public relief and welfare announced they would hold a joint public hearing on administration of the state's public relief laws.

Sen. Henry A. Wise of Watertown and Assemblyman William J. Butler of Buffalo said they had hired a special counsel to help them make "an objective, fact-finding inquiry" into the laws.

Wise was among a group of conservative Republicans who pushed a bill last year that would have imposed a one-year residency requirement for home-relief assistance in New York State.

May Come Up at Hearing
The measure was passed by the Senate, where Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney, a leader of the conservative wing, holds sway.

It was defeated in the Assembly, however, after a stormy debate that pitted Speaker Oswald D. Heck against conservative Malcolm Wilson, who now is lieutenant governor.

During the gubernatorial campaign, Rockefeller declared himself flatly opposed to the residency requirement principle, while his running mate, Wilson, said he still favored it.

Wise told a reporter the committees did not intend to raise the residency bill themselves. However, he agreed it was likely that the issue would be brought up again at the hearing, for which no date was set.

The heavily Republican Legislature convened formally last Wednesday. Its first regular working session was slated for tonight.

Other Developments
Over the weekend, there were these developments:

Will Meet Mikoyan Saturday Moscow Makes 2 Moves on Weekend

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower will meet with Soviet Dep. Premier Mikoyan at the White House Saturday.

The conference will take place in the President's office at 9 a. m. (EST). Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said no time limit has been set for the meeting.

Secretary of State Dulles and perhaps some other officials will be present, Hagerty said.

No further details were given but the meeting presumably will be a general review of East-West relations with emphasis on the Berlin situation.

Will Stand Fast
Eisenhower is expected to impress upon Premier Nikita Khrushchev's top deputy that the Western Allies have no intention of abandoning West Berlin or creating a neutralized Germany.

The Soviet visitor met with both Dulles and Vice President Nixon a week ago before starting his present tour around the country.

Surprise Moves
Interest in the forthcoming discussions was sharpened over the weekend by two surprise Moscow moves.

1. In notes to the United States and 26 other countries that fought Nazi forces in World War II, the Soviet government proposed a 28-nation conference to meet at Warsaw or Prague in two months to write a German peace treaty. The 12-page note was accompanied by a 25-page detailed outline for a treaty, including provision for withdrawal of Western and Soviet troops from Germany and a ban on German membership in any military alliance. West Germany is a member of NATO.

2. In a second note Saturday night, the Soviet Union called for resumption of East-West talks on the problem of preventing surprise attack in the nuclear missiles age. The United States responded promptly with a statement saying it favors resuming the talks — which broke down at Geneva Dec. 18 — but wants an agreement with the Soviet Union on the range of problems they should deal with.

Clearly Unacceptable
Both notes were received at the State Department Sunday. But even before the German peace treaty plan came in, officials said on the basis of a Moscow announcement Saturday that it was clearly unacceptable.

One of the provisions of the Soviet plan for Germany was that West Berlin should be converted into an unarmored free city until East and West Germany are reunited. All Classes Are Attending School At White Eagle

Renovations at White Eagle Hall, Delaware Avenue, under way through last week, for accommodation of 171 pupils of the Immaculate Conception School, were completed in time for start of classes this morning.

The two-story, frame parochial school was closed last month on archdiocesan orders because of fire hazards. The order followed a tour of parochial schools in the Archdiocese by a specially appointed diocesan committee. The committee was named after nearly 100 children lost their lives in a Chicago parochial school fire several weeks ago.

Changes Completed
The Immaculate Conception School closed Dec. 23 at noon as the Christmas vacation period started. Classes were due to be held in White Eagle Hall at the end of the vacation last week, but only accommodations for the eighth grade were completed in the White Eagle Hall at that time.

Temporary partitions have been erected in the science and ball room area on the second floor of the hall for accommodation of the various classes. Stairway changes were made and a fire-alarm system was installed. Seats and benches were moved from the frame school building.

The Delaware Avenue hall, in which the school is being conducted, was completed last week.

Footprints Match
Asked what evidence there was to support the charge, McCabe said the footprints of the Chionchio baby taken shortly after birth match those of the baby found Sunday night.

He said that footprints, like fingerprints, are only one of a kind.

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Richard Barchick, 26, had lots of company on her way to St. Vincent's hospital where she gave birth to a son. When the arrival seemed imminent, she phoned her husband at work and called in four friends. Her husband phoned the fire department which dispatched a five-man rescue squad. The firemen, in turn, called in a two-man police ambulance detail. The total of 12 persons, in various vehicles, accompanied Mrs. Barchick to the hospital.

Everyman's University

By FRANK TRIPP

A fellow who writes a newspaper column would never want for a topic if he took his fan mail pugnaciously. He could be engaged in a running fight with his readers that would never end.

Insignificant references can stir up a tempest. Then the stand he bravely takes on some serious topic, expecting to be ground to dust, can pass unnoticed or draw approval from unexpected places and bewilder him.

Happily for the puzzled writer, all are not bricksbats; yet, good for his ego, plenty are. Over half a century at the trade brings conviction that yanking a writer down a peg is just as rewarding to him as a pat on the back.

Sadly, however, too few dissenters and critics know how to disagree without becoming abusive or insinuating, thus destroy their chance to establish their position.

Human nature being what it is, their blast so overshadows their opinion that they are better ignored than answered, the veteran writer learns.

IF A FEW hundred such still hate a writer, some editor, reporter or a newspaper because their spleen, venom or abuse did not get "equal time," most likely it is because of their lack of background knowledge; and because—no matter how profound their education—they never really learned to read.

They read with a mind steeled against others' beliefs and opinions; they dissent with insistence that all else, all others, are enemies. They have no influence because they start out by condemning others and their beliefs.

There is a pattern. Basically it is racial, religious, political or plain selfish. Experience with the blasters convinces that education has less to do with tolerance than has current reading which will keep one abreast of his times; worldwide, nationally and locally. In short, the newspaper, today's mirror.

AMERICA'S greatest intellectual threat is that we breed a nation of non-readers—a continent of half-informed lookers and listeners—misguided by impressions and historical incidents distorted into exciting climaxes for soap operas or Westerns.

A curse to modern education is that entertainment and amusement are too convenient. The hours that children—and adults—once spent profitably with books go to effortless eyeing of fiction, comics and antics in overdoes of living room diversion.

Dunane Winnie came up from Westchester County Tuesday to attend to the damage done by Monday's wind storm to the roofing of his tenant house on the Ashokan mountain road.

Recent callers in the village center included Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Kelly who have a summer place near the Atwood road and the Olive-Marbletown line.

Another caller was Chester Hasbrouck who was brought up in the Stone Ridge area. He is a grandson of Jacob Barley who resided on the present Robert Peck place near Tice TenEyck mountain many years ago.

The site of the proposed new elementary school on the north side of Route 28 has been cleared of trees by the contractor for that job.

Social Agencies to Hear Director of Mental Health

Dr. Maurice Greenhill, director of the new Ulster County Mental Health Center, will be the guest speaker at the Ulster County Council of Social Agencies meeting at Hotel Kingston January 14.

The discussion "The Mental Health Center and Rehabilitation of the Mentally Ill," will follow luncheon at 12 noon. The program will start at 12:45.

Miss Rose Marie Feeney, president, said the members of the Council of Social Agencies were interested in having Dr. Greenhill report on the Ulster County program. The council was one of many agencies in Ulster County which worked with the mental health committee of Ulster County TB and Health Association, in making known the need for mental health services to the residents of Ulster County.

Dr. Greenhill, a native of Indiana, received his MD degree from the University of Chicago. He did resident work in psychiatry in Los Angeles, Calif., had psychiatric and neurological training at Massachusetts General and Worcester State Hospitals, was research associate at the Neurological Institute at Boston City Hospital. He has served professorships and research fellowships in psychiatry at Harvard Medical School, Duke University, in the University of North Carolina, Maryland and at Miami School of Medicine. He is at present Clinical professor of psychiatry at Albert Einstein College of Medicine.

Before coming to Ulster County, during 1957 and 1958, Dr. Greenhill served as director of the New York City Community Mental Health Board and previous to this time had administrative hospital appointments at many other clinics in the country. He is consultant to several community and United States public health services, and is affiliated with national medical and psychiatric societies and a diplomat of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology. He has written several books and many pamphlets pertaining to his wide field of study and practice.

The council meeting on Wednesday is an open session. Persons wishing to attend the meeting or both the luncheon and discussion, may call Miss Mary Keresman, council reservation chairman. Reservation for luncheon must be in before January 12.

TO MATCH OUR DREAMS

Virtually everyone is aware, by now, that competition between the United States and the Soviet Union covers almost the entire range of human activities. It is important for Americans to understand that we cannot afford to slacken our efforts. The machinery of our economic system must be kept working at high speed; we must step up the education of young men and women to meet the needs of a swiftly developing technology; we must work to improve health and living conditions.

To say this is nothing new. It has all been said again and again. It is repeated here for a specific purpose—to point out that our reasons for doing the things mentioned above are also of vital importance.

Certainly we should expand our economy, improve education, make the full benefits of our society available to all the population. But why? Merely to "beat the Russians"? If that is our sole motivation, we deserve to lose the race. It is part of America's genius that we have not merely competed against other nations, but have striven to match our own dreams of what life could be. This is what we must go on doing.

More production is desirable because it provides material benefits for more people, not merely because it keeps us ahead of the Russians. Scientific development is good in itself, and not only as a means of getting an edge on the Communists. Education helps individuals to develop their full capabilities, and to think merely of out-educating the Russians is a pitiful narrowing of our outlook.

Competition with the Soviet Union is one of the facts of our time. But we will be most effective at it if we strive to make our worthiest dreams come true.

New York's governor-elect seeks new sources of state revenue to avoid a 200-million-dollar deficit. Imagine anything like that puzzling a Rockefeller!

AGAINST PUBLIC SAFETY

Teamster Boss James R. Hoffa's announced intention of attempting to pull the nation's police forces into his giant union recalls Calvin Coolidge's telegram to Samuel Gompers on the occasion of the Boston police strike almost 40 years ago. "There is no right," said Coolidge, "to strike against the public safety by anybody, anywhere, any time."

This forceful expression of an attitude shared by most of the public later played a part in lifting Coolidge to the presidency. His words still have the ring of truth in them. They express a conviction which, in our opinion, is held by a majority of Americans today.

There is nothing anti-labor about holding this conviction. It is only good sense to oppose control of the police force, whether in great cities or small towns, by anyone other than the men chosen for the job by the established civic machinery.

Whether Hoffa and his associates at the shaky controls of the country's biggest union seriously expect to organize police forces is open to question. There is some reason to suppose that the whole thing is merely an effort to divert public attention from the glare of unfavorable publicity that has flooded Teamster activity.

Nevertheless, there is danger here. This arrogant plan, whether or not it is only a diversionary tactic, should be met by the force of aroused public opinion. The right to strike against the public safety, a right at least implied in the concept of police forces subject to other than civic control, is no more valid now than it was four decades ago.

The contrast between the old-time grocery store and that of today was noted by a columnist, but he didn't mention the biggest change of all—prices.

HE CROSSED THE PICKET LINE

We have all heard what a sin it is to cross a picket line. Personally, I cross one all the time because I object to compulsion. I object to another guy telling me what I can or cannot do. But I never thought that I would see the day when Walter Reuther would cross a picket line and I have received telephone call after telephone call telling me of this astonishing event. I could not go to see it because I am still convalescent.

Of course, Reuther might defend himself by saying that it was not an authorized picket line but neither was his sit-down strike in 1936-37 authorized, yet it was that strike which moved him from a ranting soap-box Socialist to a labor leader and now he is a labor statesman and has an enormous voice in the affairs of the Democratic Party.

So, Walter Reuther crossed the picket line. It was to go to lunch with Anastas Mikoyan, not a luncheon arranged by the A.F.L.-C.I.O., as some reported, but by James Carey, another labor statesman with some pretensions of being anti-Communist. Carey tried to say that he gave the luncheon in honor of Mikoyan at the request of the State Department. It would be interesting to know who in the State Department made such a request of Brother Carey, because inquiry does not disclose such a request at all. On the contrary, it is denied as against policy. George Meany, president of the A.F.L.-C.I.O. did not go to Carey's luncheon in honor of Mikoyan, Meany being a substantial citizen who hates Communists uncomprehendingly. Also Meany dislikes dictators, tyrants, men who murder other men or who commit genocide. Walter Reuther apparently has no identical scruples.

Not only that but this was a picket line of Hungarians, Bulgarians and other slave peoples whose brothers had been murdered by Khrushchev and Makoyan and their colleagues. The picket line was a protest against the butchery of these peoples. The refugees marched in protest against Mikoyan for the harm he did their people and they were duly dispersed by the police, although picket lines are supposed to be respected, nay, even revered by the police. Perhaps it is different in Washington where foreigners have to be treated with kid gloves lest they fail to love us or something.

One begins to wonder how impromptu the impromptu luncheon and dinners are that are suddenly sprouting in honor of the tourist Anastas Mikoyan. He came here to look around and he had no preparation, no agenda, no previous arrangements or understandings. He is given no formal reception of any kind but suddenly Eric Johnston and Jim Carey and Cyrus Eaton spring forward with obviously well-prepared parties. Fortunately no ticket-tape parade has been arranged in New York where there could be real trouble, considering the number of Hungarians, Poles, Czechs and even anti-Communist Armenians who live in this town. It must be that in other cities, the opposition has been pacified, although in Cleveland, a woman did throw a rock.

Anastas Mikoyan, the Armenian trader, might find some countrymen in New York who are not so hazy about the fate of Armenia, just as there are people here from every country behind the Iron Curtain. It would be pretty hard for them to take this man as an honored guest and while he has thus far managed to evade the picket lines of those who have had to leave their homelands, the politicians and the labor statesmen who wine and dine this man will sooner or later have to face them.

And so one watches each day as it goes by. One watches Mikoyan make like an American candidate for local office who gives the little boy a stick of candy and who goes into the supermarket to shake hands with anyone who will shake hands with him or who pretends to eat doughnuts dunked in coffee. Nay, he will kiss the babies and catch out the "cheeseheads!"

Of course, Mikoyan does not need votes and one wonders who set up this program and for what purpose. What are we being softened up for? Maybe, Mikoyan will go down to Texas and get one of those enormous hats and a string tie and make like an old-fashioned Senator. Who knows what can happen on this trip?

Tuberculosis Sufferer Can Spread Disease to Others by Coughing

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Precautions against contagious diseases are still in order.

Q—Recently a close relative who has been staying with us has been found to have tuberculosis. He has done a lot of coughing and I want to know if there is any danger for my son and myself.—Mrs. R.

A—Tuberculosis is a germ disease and the germ can be spread from one person to another. A person who is coughing a good deal probably has the disease in the active stage and is expelling the germ. This germ, then, can be breathed in by others in the vicinity and can lead to tuberculosis.

Under such circumstances, the doctor who made the diagnosis should be immediately consulted with regard to the possibilities of contagion. In all probability, the relative in question should be placed in a tuberculosis sanatorium, both for the sake of his own health and for others.

Q—Does a red, itchy nose denote a vitamin deficiency?—Mrs. L.

A—Probably not. A more likely possibility is a skin disease known as acne rosacea.

Q—What are spurs in the heel?—Mrs. L. T.

A—These are known as calcaneal spurs and consist of bony tissues extending out from the heel bone proper. They can usually be seen in the X-ray. Often they are quite painful, but mostly this pain occurs when pressure is put on the heel.

Sometimes the pain can be lessened by arranging the shoe so that the weight is borne on the outside rather than the center of the heel. Sometimes these spurs have been operated on in an attempt to remove the excess painful tissue, but the results of this operation often are not good. Personally, I should hesitate a long time before trying it myself.

Q—At times, usually when eating something tart, my jaw just below the left ear swells up and feels quite hard. Sometimes the swelling goes away quickly and other times it remains for some time. Would you explain this?—Mrs. L. S.

A—This is a peculiar situation which apparently involves certain salivary glands known as the parotids, which are involved in mumps. A long distance guess would be that certain foodstuffs cause a swelling of the outlet from these glands which prevents the free flow of saliva. The treatment, insofar as possible, is to avoid those foods which seem to cause difficulty.

Q—I have an inactive thyroid gland and have been taking pills for about six years. Are these likely to cause any harm to the heart or other parts of the body?—Mrs. L. C.

A—Assuming that these pills are thyroid extract and that the amount you are taking is adjusted to your needs, they can be taken indefinitely without causing harm. Indeed, if they are stopped, you would be more likely to develop difficulty.

"Sorry, Joe, but They Wanted Something Different"

Washington News

BY PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) —

Change of House of Representatives Republican leadership from Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr., of Massachusetts to Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana will probably make little discernible difference in the legislative end results.

Martin, a bachelor, lived his job and worked at it from early morning to late night. Halleck is more gregarious, but he can't work any harder or show more loyalty to President Eisenhower.

This is in no sense considered a victory for Republican progressives or liberals. True, Martin has been more of a Taft Republican. If anyone succeeded to the title of "Mr. Republican" after Taft's death, it was Joe Martin. He was always for the party.

New GOP leader Halleck has been identified more with the Wilkie, Dewey and Eisenhower wings of the party, though they have all handed him bitter disappointments. But in his personal views and voting record, Halleck has been every bit as much of a conservative as Martin.

WHAT GOT MARTIN IN THE end was not a matter of issues but of age. Martin turned 74 on the day before last November's election. Halleck was 58 last Aug. 22. The job of riding herd on 154 congressmen is nothing for a man of Martin's years.

His defeat for the GOP leadership by Representative Halleck—his lieutenant in many a political battle—is probably the bitterest blow in Martin's career; marked by personal success but many party defeats.

Just after the Republicans returned to control in 1953, the story goes that Representative Martin was reviewing GOP patronage prospects. He had just been made speaker.

The political plum crop wasn't too good picking. The Democrats had been in power for 20 years. They had transferred a lot of their political appointee job holders into the civil service. They were New Dealers, but couldn't be fired. A lot of GOP job seekers were doomed to disappointment.

Speaker Martin is reported to have observed wryly to the effect that, "Well, if we Republicans can stay in power as long as the Democrats were in, it looks as though we might be able to infiltrate the government just about as much as the Communists did under the New Deal!"

MARTIN HAS JUST MISSED complete political success more than any other leader.

He has been in Congress 34 years, continuously. He has been Republican leader in the House for 20 years. But he has been speaker for only four years, 1947-48 and 1953-54.

He was mentioned as a Republican presidential possibility several times, but he never got many convention votes outside his own state delegation.

Martin always denied that he had presidential ambitions. He contented himself with being permanent chairman of the last five GOP conventions which chose others.

In 1947 the constitutional amendment changing the line of presidential succession was ratified by the states. Martin, as Speaker of the House, became in effect vice president. That was the closest he ever got. He might have gone to the White House, if President Truman had died.

Martin was also chairman of Republican National Committee from July 1940 to November 1942. He ran the GOP campaign for Wendell Willkie, which was another defeat.

MOST OF MARTIN'S CAREER in Congress—except during the Coolidge and Hoover administrations—has been in the opposition. He probably reached the peak of his effectiveness in rallying conservative Democrats under the Republican banner to oppose or water down New Deal reforms.

What happened to Mr. Republican Martin is what happens to all politicians who try to hang on too long. Yet in defeat, he manages to emerge the bigger man.

New leader Halleck, younger and maybe more aggressive, still has to prove what he can do as man in charge.

President's Indictment Of Reds Held Significant

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — The most sensational section of President Eisenhower's address to Congress last Friday seems not to have made the big headlines in many newspapers in this region. Yet the fact that he said what he did, particularly while Anastas Mikoyan is in this country, can hardly be without considerable significance especially to the men in the Kremlin—if they really care to learn what is actually blocking a Soviet-American understanding today.

For the President's statement was perhaps the strongest declaration about the Soviet Union made by any President of the United States since the close of World War II. Here are Mr. Eisenhower's exact words:

"We cannot build peace through desire alone. Moreover, we have learned the bitter lesson that international agreements, historically considered as sacred, are regarded in Communist doctrine and in practice to be mere scraps of paper. The most recent proof of their disdain of international obligations, solemnly undertaken, is to abandon their responsibilities respecting Berlin.

Severe Indictment

"As a consequence, we can have no confidence in any treaty to which Communists are a party except which such a treaty provides within itself for self-enforcing mechanisms. Indeed the demonstrated disregard of the Communists of their own pledges is one of the greatest obstacles to success in substituting the rule of law for rule by force."

This is the most severe indictment of the Communists than any Western government has made in recent years. On top of it has just come nevertheless a grandiose proposal from Moscow that "peace talks" over the Berlin issue be held with the twenty-eight governments allied in the last war. It's the same old game of presenting in a spectacular manner to the world the picture of a Soviet government supposedly anxious to talk peace and make peace. But there's no evidence that the Communist regime will respect whatever written agreement may be consummated.

President Eisenhower realizes, of course, that the United States, to satisfy world opinion, must exhibit a constant willingness to talk. He adds, therefore, in his message:

"Yet, step by step, we must strengthen the institutions of peace—a peace that rests upon justice—a peace that depends upon a durable understanding of clear understanding by all peoples, including our own, of the boats to be manned and armed. He entered his own boat richly attired in scarlet, and bearing the royal standard, whilst Martin Alonzo Pinzon, and Vincent Yanez his brother, put off in company in their boats, each bearing the banner of the enterprise emblazoned with a green cross, having on each side the letters F and Y, surmounted by crowns, the initials of the Castilian monarch Fernando and Isabella. As they approached the shore, they were refreshed by the sight of the ample forests, which in those climates have extraordinary beauty of vegetation. They beheld fruits of tempting hue, but unknown kind, growing among the trees which overhung the shores."

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

The following description of the Rotunda, where John Vanderlyn's painting of the "Landing of Columbus" is on display, is taken from "The Federal City" by S. D. Wyeth published in 1865. This was sent to me by J. George Stewart, architect of the Capitol of Washington, D. C.

It may be interesting to those who have visited the building or intend to or know something about it.

"The chamber, in its circuit is divided into panels by 12 fluted stone pilasters, (flat columns in the wall) 30 feet high, supporting an entablature and cornice ornamented with wreaths of olive. In the larger of these panels, between the pilasters, at a small elevation from the floor, are the eight grand national pictures ordered at various times by Congress, and costing from $8,000 to $15,000 each."

"There are, also, in the larger panels above the pictures, carved figures, and in festoons and wreaths, without four of which are sculptured medallion portraits of Columbus, Cabot, Sir Walter Raleigh and LaSalle. Over the four doors of the Rotunda are also reliefs in stone illustrative of interesting events in American history. The floor of the chamber is paved with Seneca stone, and is 40 stone columns."

"The Landing of Columbus" painted by Kingston born, John Vanderlyn occupies the first panel north of the east door of the Rotunda. It is 18 feet by 12, the uniform size of the series. The coloring is brilliant and the life-size figures look as if they were breathing men, with motion suspended, and they actors in a tableau vivant."

As the starting point of American History it is the earliest scene in point of time of them all. The whole country is familiar with the grouping of this picture, and it is the one which was engraved and printed on the back of the five dollar note of our National Bank currency. To think that John Vanderlyn was later to die broke right here in a hotel in Kingston in 1852. Item further goes on to say,

"Irving, in his 'Voyages of Columbus' thus narrates the event, with its surroundings, that the genius of Vanderlyn has made to glow and live again on canvas. The morning dawned that was to give Columbus the first view of the New World. As objects gradually became visible he beheld before him a new and beautiful island several leagues in extent, of great freshness and verdure and covered with trees like a continual orchard. Though everything appeared in the wild luxuriance of untamed nature, yet the island was evidently populous, for the inhabitants were seen issuing from the woods, and running from all parts to the shore, where they stood gazing at the ships."

Columbus made signal for the ships to cast anchor, and for the

1958 Auto Sales Ahead of Output By 25,000 Units

By DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Writer
DETROIT (AP)—Sales of U.S.-made passenger cars last year topped factory output by about 25,000 units.

Official production figures for the year put total new car assemblies at 4,247,441. Complete sales figures have not yet been tabulated but authoritative estimates put the total at slightly under 4,275,000 units.

500,000 Available Now
The industry started 1958 with 652,000 new cars in dealer inventory. It presently has an estimated 500,000 new cars on hand. From a production standpoint, 1958 was the industry's poorest year in a decade. But for a sharp upsurge in new car demand in December it might have fared nearly as poorly in retail sales. Prior to 1958, the industry's poorest sales year since 1948 was 1952. That year brought only 4,158,000 retail deliveries.

Imported cars took an estimated 385,000 of the over-all U.S. auto market last year. How many of these sales U.S. car makers might have taken had there been no strong pressure by foreign producers is anybody's guess.

Added to last year's indicated U.S. sales they give an over-all indicated market of about 4,660,000 cars.

Rambler Car Sales Up
Only American motors moved contrary to the general trend last year. Production figures issued by the Automobile Manufacturers Assn. show the Rambler builder assembled 217,281 cars in 1958 compared with 114,084 in 1957.

Rambler retail deliveries also are up substantially from those of the preceding year. Chevrolet, Ford and Plymouth accounted for 2,661,411 of last year's car assemblies. This was nearly 62½ per cent of the complete total.

How their respective shares of the retail market figured out still is to be determined, although Chevrolet retained top place by a large margin. The big GM division topped Ford by more than 200,000 units on sales figures for the year into November.

Save Elephant Is Plea
Of Rochester Pupils
ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — Children at a grammar school have asked the city to spare the life of Sally, an elephant that killed a zoo employee last week.

The petition, signed by 172 children and given to the city Saturday, said that "Sally has been a good elephant for years."

The city is trying to sell Sally to some other zoo that has better facilities. Officials say the elephant will have to be destroyed, if it cannot be sold.

Sally trampled and killed Harold B. Cannon, 40, last Thursday, when he entered the enclosure at the Seneca Park Zoo.

Think It Through

E. F. HUTTON
LO, THE POOR INDIAN!

It is sad to note that Uncle pushes American Indians off their reservations whenever he chooses, despite his solemn promise not to do so.

In 1794, President Washington signed a treaty with the Seneca Indians establishing a reservation in Western New York. The treaty said: "The United States agrees that it will never claim the same and the Seneca Indians will never be disturbed in the free use and enjoyment of the same."

But to protect the white man's Pittsburgh from temporary floods, a U. S. Court has ruled that a dam can be built which will permanently flood 2300 acres of the best land in the reservation.

No doubt the ruling is "legal," but is it moral? We are supposed to be against "Colonialism" by Great Britain, Holland, France, etc., in Asia and Africa, but home-grown Colonialism is approved.

This is mighty poor advertising of our Government all over the world. A year ago, the President sent the Army to Little Rock, largely to demonstrate to the dark-skinned peoples of the world his determination to uphold a Supreme Court ruling, said to be "the law of the land."

But a treaty, under the Constitution, is part of "the supreme law of the land." "Eminent domain"—the power of Government to take private property—is a necessary power.

But couldn't engineers protect Pittsburgh in some other way? Neighbor, the honor of the United States is worth more than a dam!

Ronder Renamed As President of Savings and Loan

Alfred D. Ronder was re-elected president of the Savings and Loan Association of Kingston for the fourth term at the annual meeting of directors which followed the annual shareholders meeting Friday night.

Other officers re-elected are H. Van Wyck Darrow, executive vice-president; Samuel D. Scudder Jr., secretary; Edward M. Huben, treasurer; William R. Stall, cashier; H. Edward Carter and Edward R. Dunn, assistant cashiers.

Ronder, who had served as a director of the association for over 25 years, was elected president in 1955 following the death of E. Frank Flanagan.

Best in 67 Years
A report on the past year's business was given shareholders by President Ronder in which he said the past year had been the most successful in the 67 years existence of the association with net income, before dividends, amounting to $475,269.38 which is $36,478.04 above last year.

Dividends paid to savers during 1958 amounted to $376,236.55, which exceeded the amount of dividends ever paid by The Savings and Loan Association of Kingston in its entire history.

During the year there was added to the reserve and undivided profits $29,672.96, bringing the total reserves to $1,339,928.72 which amount exceeds the statutory requirements and is sufficient to meet any contingency.

Biggest Gain in Assets
Total assets were reported as $14,367,769.60 at the end of 1958, an increase of $1,327,902.07 over the previous year and the largest annual increase the Association has ever enjoyed.

Savings accounts increased by $1,147,912.35 during the past year which Ronder said was "notable in view of the keen competition for savings among the financial institutions of our community."

Investment in first mortgage loans increased $953,269.61 over the previous year and accounts for the substantial increase in earnings and enabled the Association to pay substantial dividends to the savers.

8,630 Membership Now
The Association now has a total membership as of December 31, 1958, of 8,630 compared to a total of 8,212 at the close of business on December 31, 1957.

In view of the satisfactory earnings and fine showing which the Association made during the past year the directors anticipated rate dividends for the first quarter of 1959, ending March 31, 1959, as follows:

Income Shares 3½ per cent, Installment Shares 3¼ per cent and Savings Shares 3¼ per cent. In his report to the membership President Ronder said there had been an increase in 1958 over 1957 in assets as follows:

First Mortgage Loans $953,269.61, Share Loans $31,351.52, F.H.A. Title Loans $64,068.29, U. S. Government Obligations $204,595.76, Stock-Federal Home Loan Bank $10,000, Cash $68,968.23. The total increase in assets being $1,327,902.07.

Ronder reported "we have a fine organization and I wish to thank the staff, directors and officers for their loyalty and co-operation during the year."

4 Directors Re-elected
Members re-elected by the shareholders to serve as directors for three year terms are: Arthur J. Burns, Chauncey M. Lane, Alfred D. Ronder, Gilbert A. Schline.

Other directors whose terms continue are: J. Ellis Briggs, Albert C. Flanagan, N. Jansen Fowler, Edward M. Huben, Samuel D. Scudder Jr., George J. Silkworth, Paul F. Steinkuller and Arthur H. Wicks.

N. Jansen Fowler was re-elected attorney.

KUTTAWA, Ky. (AP) — Two men who robbed O. B. Herring Jr., are driving around the country at his expense. They stole his service station credit card. So far he's received bills totaling $475. They took $500 in cash from him at the time of the robbery.

Veterans' Rights, Benefits Listed

Howard C. Shurter, county director Veterans' Service Agency, and Charles L. Culver, state veterans counselor, NYS Division of Veterans Affairs, submit another in a series of articles on rights and benefits of veterans, servicemen and other dependents.

Insurance—The new total disability income provision available to NSLI policyholders for a small additional premium which pays $10 a month for each $1,000 National Service Life Insurance in force may be issued to policyholders insurance age 40 or under, without a medical examination. Veterans insurance age 40 and under, may use VA Form 9-1606a, "Application for Total Disability Income Provision, (Non-medical)" to apply for this benefit. Eligible applicants may use the existing VA Form 9-1060 until this new Form 9-1606a is available. Only parts I and II of VA Form 9-1606 must be completed by applicants insurance age 40 and under. The form must be accompanied by a statement signed by the applicant's employer, supervisor or other authorized person to the effect that the applicant has been able to perform his regular duties without substantial loss of time on account of illness or disability. The right to require a physical examination of an applicant age 40 or under is reserved if the applicant's answer to the questions in Part II of VA Form 9-1606 indicate a need for a physical examination to determine the insurability of the applicant. NSLI applicants, insurance age 41 and over, and all U. S. Government life insurance applicants, should complete the entire VA Form 9-1606 which contains a medical examination section to apply for the total disability income provision. Veterans age 41 and over, who now hold disability income coverage of $5 for each $1,000 of insurance may apply to double their coverage by submitting VA Form 9-1606 including the physical examination section and paying the new premium for the increased coverage.

Statistics—The average age of Spanish-American war veterans is about 81, of World War I veterans more than 64, of World War II veterans more than 39 and of Korean conflict veterans over 27. These average ages were computed as of September 30, 1958.

Pension—Annual income questionnaires are sent by the Veterans Administration to veterans and their survivors who are receiving non-service connected pensions. These income questionnaire forms are usually received by persons getting non-service connected pensions in the last part of December or the early part of January. Annual income questionnaires have to be completed and returned to the address indicated on the form within 30 days from the date shown on the form. Anyone who does not return the annual income questionnaire form within the 30 day period allowed may have his or her pension stopped. Some difficulty or technicality in determining what is considered income in connection with pensions may rise. It is suggested, therefore, that the questionnaire form be completed with great care and if possible that assistance from this agency be requested in completing the questionnaire. Persons without dependents with an annual income of over $1400 a year or those with dependents with an income of over $2700 a year are not eligible to continue to receive a pension.

Mop—Members of the Armed Forces who were separated from active service under honorable conditions before July 16, 1952, and who have not received mustering out payment should make application for it before July 17, 1959. Applications should be sent to the Secretary of the branch of the Armed Forces in which the veteran served. Mustering out payments will be made beginning with one month after an application has been received and approved. Complete information concerning mustering out payments may be obtained from this office.

Questions about the rights and benefits of veterans, servicemen or their dependents may be submitted for individual attention to the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs and the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency located at 32 Main Street, Kingston, N. Y.

Urges Study of U.N. To Correct Weakness

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Sen. Bourke Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) who is on the U. S. delegation to the United Nations, urges a study of the UN to correct what he calls its weaknesses.

He says he doubts that the UN "in its present form is the ultimate force or even the ultimate pattern for a reliable peace."

Hickenlooper, who spoke before the Rochester City Club Saturday, said the member nations should make the study. He said the UN has only the force of world public opinion to back up its decisions.

There is a slowness in meeting vital issues," he added.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The President's sermon on thrift to the Congress and to the American people is based on the practically unchallenged thesis:

Only by prudent economy can the nation ward off further inflation. But will it try to? The rub comes in this: Will the Congress, and the people it represents, care enough about fighting a future and somewhat nebulous inflation to do without the present sugar plums the President's new economy drive proposes to withhold?

Orders Will Suffer

Supposing the Congress goes along — and the President points out that Congress alone holds the purse strings — many industries will be cut off from some orders they would get from freer federal spending. The first economy drive some two years ago showed how quickly some industries could be hurt when Uncle Sam tightened up on his spending.

The President offers the classic indictment of government spending in excess of income, with the end result of whittling away the purchasing power of the dollar: "Inflation is not a Robin Hood, taking from the rich to give to the poor. Rather, it deals most cruelly with those who can least protect themselves. It strikes hardest those millions of our citizens whose incomes do not quickly rise with the cost of living."

Would Halt Deficit Financing

The proposed economy would end the federal deficit financing, which the President lists along with the wage-price spiral as basic causes of inflation.

If Congress fools the experts and approves tight budgeting, what would it do to present business expectations?

A realistic appraisal of most of the predictions of good times in 1959 shows that one of the factors they strongly count upon is a rise in government spending — at the federal, state and local levels — and spending beyond the amounts the President says he will propose to Congress.

It is in other fields than defense that the President seeks dollar cutbacks. He mentions in general terms the ending of some costly housing, farming and veteran programs.

Will Dash Some Hopes

Those who supply or work for builders could have some of their hopes dashed. Those who sell to farmers could find some of them less enthusiastic buyers of goods.

A real economy drive would mean cutting back the number of government workers — a total that seems to grow year by year. And a successful economy drive could dampen some of the ardor of the stock market. The bull market has fed on expectations of further inflation from deficit spending and from the wage-price spiral that it often speeds up.

Inflation doesn't help the economy really. It only seems to. But the thrift that would thwart the continuing deterioration of the American dollar sometimes tastes like bitter medicine.

Busy, Probably Productive Congress Conscious Term Runs Into 1960 Election

Boy, 7, to Lose Sight Of Eyes on Birthday

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP) — Hugh Thornhill, a boy with the nerve of a man, will turn 7 Thursday. But it'll be a sad birthday, passed quietly in his hospital room.

For Hugh, it marks the start of a life of blindness.

Doctors will remove his diseased left eye the day before his birthday. They took out his right eye in 1955.

Hugh—the son of a roofing plant worker—suffers from congenital glaucoma, a disease which builds up pressure in the eyeball and destroys sight.

Rule IBC Must Dissolve 2-State Boxing Monopoly

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today upheld a lower court ruling requiring dissolution of the International Boxing Clubs of New York and Illinois.

The ruling, by U. S. Dist. Judge Sylvester J. Ryan in New York, also held the Madison Square Garden Corp. and its majority stockholders—James D. Norris of New York and Arthur M. Wirtz of Chicago—along with the two clubs had violated the Sherman Anti-trust Law.

Justice Clark delivered the Supreme Court's 5-3 decision. Justice Harlan dissented, joined by Justices Frankfurter and Whitaker. Justice Stewart took no part.

Judge Ryan found the defendants had monopolized interstate commerce in the professional boxing championship fight through interlocking corporations, ownership of stadiums, and contracts with boxers.

Norris and Wirtz were told to sell their more than 50,000 shares of stock in the Garden, were prohibited from acting as officers of the Garden corporation, and were limited to promoting two championship fights yearly.

They appealed directly to the Supreme Court, asking reversal of Judge Ryan's ruling. Their counsel told the high court Judge Ryan's decree was so severe that a twice-a-week television fight series was jeopardized.

Central Figures Show '58 Profit

NEW YORK (AP) — Final figures will show that the New York Central Railroad made a profit in 1958, President Alfred Perlman said today.

For the first 11 months of 1958, the road reported a deficit of $1,135,900, compared with net income of $8,218,221 in the same months of 1957.

Perlman told a news conference the break-even point had been reduced from 3,900,000 freight carloadings a year to 3,172,000 cars. He admitted, however, that part of this improved efficiency was accomplished at the expense of work we would like to have done.

In 1959, Perlman said, the road expects a 7 per cent increase in business, which he described as no great boom. The Central president added, "I don't feel the corner has been turned yet on heavy industry."

"With competition for American steel and other products from foreign countries there has been no great pickup in industrial production in our territory," Perlman said. However, he added, he is very hopeful industrial production will pick up.

Churchills Leave Ice For Sunny Morocco

LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston and Lady Churchill, bundled up against London's freezing temperatures, left by air today for a six-week stay in the sunshine of Morocco.

He watched in a jovial mood as his easel and paints were carried aboard. He plans to do more painting in the vicinity of Marrakech, which has provided subjects for many of his canvases.

Justice Hamm Presides During January Term

Supreme Court Justice Herbert D. Hamm is continuing the January term of Supreme Court here. He took over the term today due to the illness of Justice Harry E. Schirck who was taken ill Thursday afternoon.

Just prior to Justice Schirck's illness, the case on trial had been settled after being partially tried. It was an action in automobile negligence brought by James C. Clark of Marlborough against Robert Mulrenan and another and involved a collision at the junction of Routes 30 and 20 near Experience on September 17, 1956.

Clark, a Marlborough stevedock, suffered severe injuries to his head and back. Roy L. Featherstone appeared for plaintiff and Donald H. McCann for the defendants.

Brooklyn Hood Slain in Queens

NEW YORK (AP)—Louis Loffredo, 40, identified by police as a Brooklyn hoodlum, was found shot to death Sunday night on a deserted dirt road in Queens near Idlewild Airport.

The body had three bullet wounds in the head.

In July 1947, Loffredo's brother, Alfredo, 34, was found slain in a desolate Bath Beach section of Brooklyn. He had been shot several times in the back.

Police said Louis, a longshoreman, had a long criminal record. He was released from prison last October after being convicted in 1947 with two others in a $14,000 Brooklyn holdup.

Near the well-dressed body police found four bloodstained $10 bills. There were two $100 bills in the dead man's pocket.

When Louis and two others were convicted of the Brooklyn robbery in 1947, Kings County Court Judge Samuel S. Leibowitz offered them leniency if they would tell what they knew about eight murders, including that of Loffredo's brother.

Leibowitz said he had been told by Police Capt. James McNally that "if these men would open up, they would make Murder, Inc. look like a game of penny ante."

The reference was to the old murder-for-profit gang in Brooklyn.

But the three — Loffredo, Anthony Bruno, 33, and Dominic Caracci, 30—kept silent.

Coast Guard Is Hunting Planes With Nine Aboard

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — Two U. S. Coast Guard cutters were searching today for a huge C-124 Air Force cargo plane believed down with nine men aboard in the vicinity of the rugged Kenai Peninsula's southeastern tip.

A Coast Guard spokesman at Kodiak said the cutter Storvik was dispatched from Kodiak, and the Sedge was sent out from Cordova. The Globemaster plane was last heard from as it approached Homer, 125 miles southeast of here, for an emergency landing with two of its four engines out. It never arrived at Homer, which is at the base of a 5,200-foot mountain range.

The Coast Guard said the plane had radioed its trouble and an amphibious plane intercepted it. The escort plane, however, lost the Globemaster because of bad weather.

They should be able to exert some pressure. Particularly Sir. Johnson is not likely to ignore them. Even though he outmaneuvered them on the rules change he is still making some concessions to them.

He is a great compromiser, anxious to have his big Democratic majority work together as much as possible.

He yields a little to each of the opposing groups, a kind of middle ground. This may not satisfy either side completely, but still shows some movement without leaving either completely dissatisfied.

Several Shaken Up In Route 209 Mishap

A number of persons were reported shaken up in a two-car collision Saturday afternoon on Route 209 about 100 feet south of the Oak Ridge Road.

Troopers William Shurtner and Thomas Waterman of the Ellenville state police reported that they would see their own physicians.

The collision involved a 1956 coupe operated by Mrs. Estelle Gartner, 33, of Ellenville, and a 1958 sedan operated by Charles Gold, 26, of Brooklyn.

Passengers in the Gartner vehicle were Jay, 3, and Barbara, 2, and in the Gold car were Mrs. Gold, 22, Simon, 34, and Irene, 31, all of Brooklyn.

Executions Mount As Castro Speeds Up Cuban Trials

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Executions of the followers of former Dictator Fulgencio Batista are mounting in Cuba as the forces of rebel leader Fidel Castro continue hurry-up military trials.

Thus far about 50 Batista supporters have been executed. Nearly 3,000 are awaiting trial.

Asked on a U. S. television program Sunday why the Batista followers were being executed without open trials, Castro said, "There were not so many... two or three dozen criminals."

"They were judged," he said, adding that "if anyone killed 15 or 30 people, he has no right to live."

The interview was recorded in Havana Saturday.

Correspondent Jules DuBois of the Chicago Tribune reported that the mutilated bodies of 160 anti-Batista prisoners were found Sunday in a mass grave on the outskirts of San Cristobal, 60 miles west of Havana.

Military authorities in Manzanillo announced Sunday that Cuban soldiers not allowed to witness the firing squad executions of Batista supporters. But they will be allowed to see the bodies afterward.

The announcement came after a crowd of 3,000 attended the execution Saturday in Manzanillo of six Batista supporters convicted by a military court. The announcement said public executions do not conform with our culture.

In the television interview Castro repeatedly insisted that the provisional government is being guided by public opinion and not by force.

He said his country is now and will remain a democracy. "We are men of the law," Castro, a lawyer himself, declared.

Castro said on the television program that his impressions of the United States improved last year when military assistance to Batista was halted. He added he was happy the United States was quick to recognize the rebel regime.

Directorate troops Sunday began moving out of the University of Havana and the board of governors was working on plans to reopen the university. It has been closed since Castro started his revolution.

All public and private schools, closed since before Christmas, were ordered to reopen today.

Mikoyan Stresses Russia Anxious About U. S. Trade

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Anastias I. Mikoyan carried his intensive whirlwind goodwill campaign for the Soviet Union into motion picture land today with film industry representative Eric Johnston as his host.

The Soviet first deputy premier attended a dinner in his honor Sunday night at the swank Beverly Hills Hotel. The affair, arranged by Johnston, was attended by a select group of leading Southern California business figures.

Answers, Sans Name

In the course of a question period, Mikoyan denied that agreements made with the Soviet Union are regarded by the Soviet government as mere scraps of paper.

He thus answered a statement by President Eisenhower, without referring to the President by name, made in his State of the Union address Friday.

Mikoyan said that, on the contrary, there are some people who think "imperialists" keep international agreements only when it suits them.

He said "we also have the feeling that you have violated agreements."

Repeats Peace Theme

Mikoyan's remarks to the southern California business leaders repeated the peace and trade themes that have been stressed during his trip.

He put in a particularly strong bid for removal of restrictions of trade with the Soviet Union and increased Soviet-American trades.

Before going to the Johnston dinner Mikoyan gave another free-wheeling news conference at which, among other things, he revealed that former Soviet security chief, Army Gen. Ivan Serov, is now on duty in a responsible post in the Soviet army.

Comments on Arrival

The conference came immediately after his arrival at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles, where he was driven on arrival at Lockheed Air Terminal, Burbank. Fog at Los Angeles International Airport canceled plans to have his plane land there.

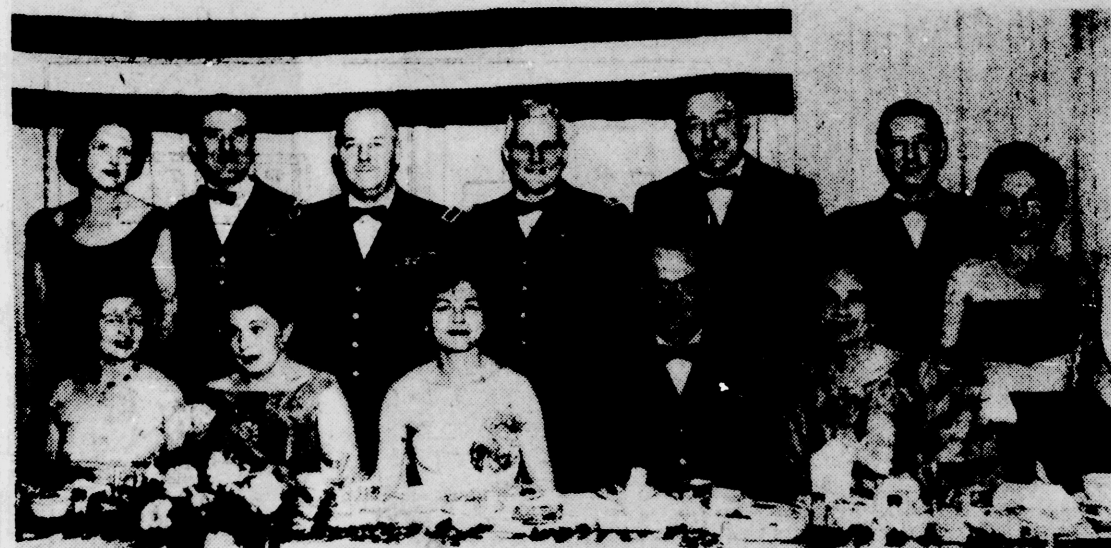

He saw no anti-Communist pickets on his arrival.

Before his departure from San Francisco Sunday, Mikoyan was received by California's new governor, Edmund G. Brown. The governor proposed to the Soviet leader that when the next conference is held between the Soviet Union and the United States, that it take place beneath California's "great and ageless redwoods."

Gov. Brown apologized for the actions of egg-throwing demonstrators at the airport in San Francisco on Mikoyan's arrival Saturday, saying that this was not typical of Californians.

Fire in Car Wiring

A fire due to a short circuit in wiring in the car of Bernard Roach, of 27 Johnston Avenue, caused slight damage Sunday night. Wiltwyck station answered a call at 9:25 p. m., to Main Street, between Washington Avenue and Green Street, where the blaze was checked.

156th ADVISER IS HONORED—Maj. Douglas Knowlton, U. S. Army adviser to the 156th Field Artillery Battalion, New York National Guard, was honored by officers of the local battalion at a testimonial dinner held Saturday evening at Fitzgerald. Maj. Douglas

In July 1949 he re-entered active duty at Fort Benning, Ga., and was assigned to the 39th Field Artillery, Third Infantry Division, in Korea. He returned to the States after the Korean conflict and was then reassigned to the First Armored Division then stationed in Giessen, Germany. He served there until November 1953. His family accompanied him during his Germany assignment.

They returned to the States in January 1956 and as a member of the U. S. Army Reserve (National Guard of the United States), New York, Knowlton was assigned to duty with the 156th Field Artillery Battalion.

Varied Service Career

Maj. Knowlton's experiences have been varied in the military service, but one of his "biggest moments of joy," he said, "was when the 156th was awarded its eighth 'superior' rating during active training at Camp Drum last summer."

This was an outstanding achievement for a Guard unit and Major Knowlton felt he had a part in the accomplishment as the unit advisor.

"He has never let up, never slowed his pace, always worked with the progress of the battalion uppermost in mind," said Col. Harkin, "and we have appreciated his tremendous support and soldierly duty."

Honored Guests

Honored guests at the testimonial included Brig. Gen. John J. Fitzgerald, II Corps Artillery Commander, and Mrs. Fitzgerald from Long Beach; Col. John J. MacFarland, II Corps Army Adviser, and Mrs. MacFarland, Albany; Capt. Harry Moldaw, II Corps Artillery Adjutant, and Mrs. Moldaw of Brooklyn; Superintendent of the Kingston Armory, Burton F. Giles and Mrs. Giles; and Acting Superintendent of the Poughkeepsie Armory, Alfred W. Aldrich and Mrs. Aldrich. Due to illness Col. and Mrs. John L. Lee and Capt. and Mrs. William R. Lupton were unable to attend. Col. Lee is the Senior Army Adviser for the state and Capt. Lupton is Army Aviation Advisor at Zahn's Airport, Long Island.

Honor guards for the dinner were composed of M/Sgt. Walter T. Bundy and SFC Edward H. Steger, both of headquarters battery of the local unit, SFC Robert G. Emberson of Service Battery and Specialist 3/c Robert J. Motrie of Battery A.

The committee on arrangements included Maj. Marx, Mr. James H. Ackerman Jr., operations and training officer; Capt. Frank Fabbie, S-2 and battalion administrative assistant; Capt. Edward J. Schroeder, headquarters battery commander; CWO Thomas W. Miller, military personnel officer and CWO John G. Reynolds, battalion maintenance officer.

Music for dancing following the dinner was provided by Harry Maisenhelder and his orchestra.

Chionchio Baby

did not bear a child nine days ago.

Had 'Good Care'

He said the woman took "good care of the baby." "She had plenty of experience caring for children of her own," he said.

Officials at St. Peter's said the baby weighed 7 pounds, 1 ounce when it was returned to the hospital. The Chionchio infant weighed 7 pounds at birth.

Mrs. Iavarone is a bleached-blond, 5 feet 6, weighing about 140 pounds.

Leggett said Mrs. Iavarone, a department store employee, had been married twice and had eight children. The youngest is 3. The oldest, a 23-year-old son, died last summer, he said.

Her first marriage, to John Robert Getch, ended in divorce. Leggett said; and her second husband, Peter Morello, died two years ago. The name of the name Iavarone was not immediately explained.

Complete Water

Civil Defense supply at Wadingdale and brought to the scene for a temporary supply. The work of laying and connecting the 8 inch pipe was completed Sunday afternoon.

During the period while temporary pipe-line was being laid water was supplied by pumping from the Chichester stream into a hydrant. The new supply is being furnished by a temporary dam placed in the creek where the emergency pipe line picks up the water.

Water Trustee Bush said the village will "get by" with the temporary supply until repairs can be made to the water-main. The point of the freeze-up has not been determined as yet.

Brown Gets 60 Days On 2 Traffic Counts

Henry Brown, 41, of Ulster Street, arrested Saturday night on charges of leaving the scene of an accident and driving without a license, was sentenced to both counts in city court today and placed on probation for six months.

Brown was arrested by officers Charles McCullough and Albert Hutton, of the detective division, after it was reported that a truck he was driving rolled back into the car of Thomas Davide of 646 Delaware Avenue, while the latter was parked on that street.

City Judge Aaron E. Klein imposed a sentence of 30 days on each charge to be served concurrently, plus the six months probation.

Donated Voluntarily

The Rev. Joseph J. Siczek, pastor of the Immaculate Conception Parish, noted recently that the hall had been "graciously offered" as soon as the order was issued to close the school.

Father Siczek also noted that the raising of a fund for a new school building has been in progress for some time, and it was revealed last summer that the former Raymond J. Schuler property at Delaware Avenue and Jarrold Street, had been acquired by the parish. A building there will be razed, if it is decided to use the site for a school.

Money collected, to date, for the new school, Father Siczek said, is still "quite substantial," is still insufficient to cover the project.

Study Begins

Board and Roy Butz, reading specialist for the Cooperative Board.

Fernandez described the program of curriculum coordination which would set up a curriculum materials laboratory for the teachers of the county. The curriculum coordinator would work directly with the individual administrators, supervisors or teachers in setting up in-service training programs, workshops, study groups and permanent councils of teachers or supervisors which would meet periodically to study and recommend improved programs, etc. to their boards and communities.

The supervisor also explained the definite advantages of surveying the local county teaching practices. He stated that by this method, the administrators would be able to pinpoint what the good practices and teaching methods are, and recognize teacher talents. He recommended to the administrators a proposal which would organize a system of teacher to teacher visitation and observation within the county.

Roy Butz spoke on the importance of proper reading instruction and the benefits of coordinating the latest information on reading, methods of instruction, studying the reading problems of our schools and communities to parents in general relating what is a sound program as well as the technical aspects for its success.

He commented that through working with the teachers of Ulster County, studies would be made to seek out and utilize the most effective techniques of reading instruction and remedial reading methods. Presently, he is working with the Ontario Central School in organizing a "How to Teach Study Skills" course for the secondary school teachers, and at Ellenville he has instituted a program of reading for the High School students.

Congress to Quiz U. S., Red Space Race Progress

WASHINGTON (AP)—The question of where the United States stands in the space race with the Soviet Union will come under renewed congressional inquiry this session.

Rep. Overton Brooks (D-La), prospective chairman of the new House Space Committee, said today he could not yet speak for the House group since it had not been officially organized nor his chairmanship confirmed.

However, Brooks said, "I personally would favor holding hearings."

The Louisiana Democrat spoke in an interview against a background of conflict over whether this country is lagging in the space contest and whether it should step up its effort.

The temporary House Space Committee of the last Congress, headed by Democratic Leader John W. McCormack (Mass.), issued a final report over the weekend picturing the Soviets as perhaps 1 1/2 years or more ahead of the United States in space progress.

The space committee saw America's extinction as the likely cost of Soviet victory in the space race. Calling for the utmost national effort, it quoted estimates that even with a thoroughgoing program it will take the United States "at least five years to close the gap."

Vice President Nixon holds a different view, according to information given newsmen Sunday.

Nixon, who sits in top strategy councils, says the United States is ahead of the Soviet Union in developing military missiles and is catching up fast in other phases of the space race.

Nixon does not think more money can be spent wisely on satellites. He blames on the previous Democratic administration what he says is a lag of several years in a U. S. start on developing big rocket engines. Under a massive effort now, he says, this country is fast overtaking the Soviets in rocket power and satellites.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—"The American television audience has good taste," says Henry Jaffe. "But it has to understand what it's seeing. Good showmanship enables it to understand."

He is the head of Henry Jaffe Enterprises which tonight presents the first "Bell Telephone Hour" on NBC-TV (8:30 p. m. EST). The live, hour-long program called "Adventures in Music" offers Harry Belafonte, Renata Tebaldi, Maurice Evans, the piano team of Arthur Gold and Robert Fildale, the New York City Ballet, and the Baird Marionettes.

This will be the first of four programs of music — and Jaffe said the other day that he hopes there will be more.

"Attracting a client to do a great music show in the face of the facts of life is a fantastic tribute to his own good taste," said Jaffe.

By "facts of life" he meant audience ratings, which are universally low on TV programs of serious music. However, the sponsor of the series tells Jaffe that it doesn't care about audience ratings — simply wants to present good programs.

Nevertheless, Jaffe believes that the show will have a large audience because it has an absorbing theme — "adventure, a slight threat, not a book, that will intrigue and carry the audience."

What Happens When Child Lies to Protect Friend?

Nine-year-old Fran came home from skating with her friend Dot sporting a sparkling bead necklace. Asked where she got it, she said she's bought it with some allowance savings.

But later her story turned out to be a lie. Dot's mother telephoned to say that the necklace had been charged to her account at a specialty store. She said, "Apparently the kids saw these beads in the window, and Dot wanted to show off by buying them for Fran."

Faced with the news, Fran stubbornly stuck to her lie. Only when she learned that Dot had broken down and confessed the truth did she finally confess it too.

The confession brought no relief to her mother. Closing the bedroom door on Fran's sobs, she thought, "Oh, God, what have I done to make this child so stubbornly untruthful?"

Today she's still terribly distressed. To me, Fran's untruthfulness is much less distressing. In it I can see mistaken action, but I can also see in it loyalty to her friend.

Had Fran not felt obliged to protect Dot against punishment for abusing her mother's charge account, she would have proclaimed the truth about the necklace with pride and pleasure.

Like Fran's mother, we parents can be so frightened by a child's lie that we become blind to its inherent meaning.

A psychiatrist once said to me, "Parents' greatest need is the acceptance of their own pasts." It is our fear of our own pasts that creates our panic of a child's lie. If we trust the example of truthfulness we have given Fran, her lie does not overwhelm us with panic.

We do not think, "Oh, what a failure I am." We remember what we've shown Fran of the value of truthfulness.

Without distress we can say to our crushed youngster, "What you wanted this lie to do was protect Dot against punishment, wasn't it? And the lie didn't do it. Think about that, Fran."

"Maybe the right time to protect Fran, was two weeks ago when she wanted to give you the necklace. If you'd said, 'No, it's too risky' maybe that would have been real loyalty to Dot."

A man had barely paid off his house when he put another mortgage against it in order to buy a car. Having the car, he went to a loan broker to try to get a mortgage on the car in order to build a garage.

Broker—But if I make you the loan how will you buy gas for the car?

Man (with dignity)—It seems to me that if I own a house, car and garage, I should be able to get credit for gas.

Coast Guard Rescues Deer on Ice Floe

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y. (AP)—A float on a floe was a deer. She was trapped, with no place to go. A Coast Guard lasso brought her in tow.

And that was the end of her woes.

That is the saga of a deer floating down the Hudson River on a cold Sunday afternoon.

The Coast Guard cutter Marietta, out on ice patrol, spotted the deer and set out on a rescue mission.

Alarmed by the 180-foot ship, the deer kept skipping from floe to floe, like Eliza fleeing the hounds. It was more than an hour before the lasso found its mark.

A seaman scrambled onto the floe and tied the deer's legs so she wouldn't hurt herself when she was hauled aboard.

And then back to the woods she did go.

Car Takes Death Plunge in River

NEW YORK (AP)—A man and a woman sat in a parked car on Manhattan's lower east side.

A cruising police car noticed them and slowed.

Suddenly, the engine of the parked auto roared. The car shot across a street, bounced over a 14-inch safety barrier and plunged into the icy water of the East River, as the woman screamed.

The car was hauled up from murky water, 20 feet deep, several hours later. Its occupants were dead.

Police still didn't know today why the car made that brief and fatal trip Saturday night. They continued to probe for a solution to the mystery.

The dead man was identified as Marcial Martinez, an unemployed hotel worker living with his sister in The Bronx. A brother-in-law said Martinez worked recently in Batavia. The car bore Genesee County plates.

The woman was Aida Rodriguez, 19, of Manhattan. Her black handbag was found on the street near the river wall.

Three Crewmen Of Balloon Rested After Crossing

NEW YORK (AP)—Three members of the crew of the British balloon "Small World" arrived at Idlewild Airport today from Barbados, rested from the ordeal of a 24-day wind-and-water crossing of the Atlantic.

Arnold Eiloart, 51, leader of the expedition, related how the small balloon was forced down by a storm 94 hours after its launching Dec. 12 in the Canary Islands on an project to study Atlantic trade winds.

The crew of three men and a woman completed the crossing in 24 days in a 15½-foot plastic gondola-lifboat after cutting loose the balloon.

Newsman Fight At Olivier Party

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Theatrical temperament was not to blame when a fight broke out at a fancy cocktail party honoring Sir Laurence Olivier.

The battle, in fact, was staged not by actors but by press representatives.

Sir Laurence was not involved and was completely untroubled by it. But he joked afterward: "I was standing and ready."

Stars Miss It

Such stars as Judy Garland, Gary Cooper, Jack Benny, Edward G. Robinson, Sophia Loren, Tony Curtis, Milton Berle, Jack Lemmon and Janet Leigh missed seeing the action.

The men are both middle-aged, bespectacled and not athletic.

Said Norris: "He insulted my wife."

Austin Comments

Said Austin: "I merely commented on one of the magazines for which she works."

Said Olivier, with tongue in cheek: "I planned the whole thing. I need the publicity."

Norris suffered a bloody mouth in the skirmish, the only noticeable injury of the bout.

The party, held in a plush hotel, was to call attention to the forthcoming film about the gladiators of ancient times.

American Plans To Resume Half Of Flights Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—American Airlines planned to resume half its flights today under a new contract that could earn $28,440 a year for some jet pilots.

The contract, approved Sunday, ended the last in a series of national airline strikes.

Since October, walkouts have disrupted flights by Eastern Air Lines, Trans World Airlines, Capital Airlines and American at various times.

After the 22-day American strike ended, the company immediately started partial service. A full schedule of flights was expected Tuesday.

The Air Line Pilots Assn., which called the strike against American, estimated the settlement would net its 1,500 pilots a 15 per cent pay increase and a total of five million dollars in retroactive pay. The contract dates back to August 1957.

Could Earn $28,440

A union spokesman said the captain of a Boeing-707 jet, which American plans to start using later this month, could earn $28,440 a year. A Convair captain, the spokesman added, could earn $17,892 a year. The old contract would have given him $15,288 a year.

American, before the strike began Dec. 19, had offered a pay increase of 10 per cent, the union spokesman said.

The new contract also provides a third pilot for jet crews. Current piston plane crews comprise two pilots and one flight engineer.

The strike cost an estimated loss of 33 million dollars to the company, its suppliers and their employees.

American is a member of a mutual aid pact of six airlines. Under this agreement, the airlines hand a struck pact member the revenue from any extra business they attract because of the strike.

Wants to Forget

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP)—A lonely, bitter Copenhagen carpenter, brooding over a broken marriage, says he has applied for a seat on the first manned Soviet space rocket because life on earth has no promise for him.

Two Lawmakers Would Repeal Youth Court Act

ELMIRA, N. Y. (AP)—Bills to kill the controversial youth court act before its April 1 effective date are promised soon by two upstate legislators.

Assemblyman Charles D. Henderson (R-Hornell) and Sen. Harold A. Jerry (R-Elmira) said Saturday they would introduce measures this week to repeal the act in their respective houses.

They were planning no substitute law immediately.

Their announcement was hailed by a spokesman for the New York State Managing Editors Assn., Covey C. Hoover, managing editor of the Elmira Star-Gazette.

Hoover, who is general chairman of the association's Right to Know Committee, called the repeal plan "seizing the bull by the horns."

Editors Viewpoint

At the same time, he released details of his committee's stand against the youth court act. He said this represented the unanimous view of the editors' group.

He said the society urged repeal of the act by the current Legislature and that no substitute law be enacted this year. Instead, it proposed that a new commission composed of "many and diverse elements interested... in the care of the youthful offender" prepare new legislation for the 1960 session.

Termed Unfeasible

The committee also noted that "it is impractical and unfeasible to blanket such diverse elements as New York City and urban suburban and rural New York State with an identical program."

Hoover said "the editors will be gratified to learn that legislators from Chemung and Steuben counties are planning to do battle. We hope that there will be more of them across the state."

The youth court act was passed by the 1956 Legislature but its effective date has been postponed twice under pressure of widespread objections from law enforcement agencies and newspapers.

The act provides that those aged 16 to 20 would be treated as youthful offenders with most of the court proceedings to be secret except as the presiding judges order otherwise.

3 Killed, 5 Overcome By Coal Gas Fumes

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—Three persons were killed and five others were overcome Sunday by coal gas fumes that seeped from a clogged furnace in a downtown apartment building.

Other might have died, police said, if a passer-by had not smelled gas and quickly notified authorities. Twenty-three people living in the three-story building were asleep.

Killed were Mrs. Frank Quinn, 55, Wesley Richards, 65, and a third woman whose death certificate listed her as "Miss Vida Thompson or Grasso, about 40."

The new contract also provides a third pilot for jet crews. Current piston plane crews comprise two pilots and one flight engineer.

The strike cost an estimated loss of 33 million dollars to the company, its suppliers and their employees.

American is a member of a mutual aid pact of six airlines. Under this agreement, the airlines hand a struck pact member the revenue from any extra business they attract because of the strike.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

This has been a great decade for hypochondriacs. Eighty new viruses affecting the human system were discovered in the last 10 years. And did you know 750 million prescriptions now are filled yearly in the United States?

Salt Was Luxury

In ancient days salt was an expensive luxury. Now more salt is sprinkled on icy roads in America than is used on food.

Ever wonder about the milkman's job? Well, the average man covers 25 miles a day, makes 125 stops, and delivers 300 containers.

Apt definition: "Tact," says Grace Downs, operator of an air hostess school, "is the ability to make a point without making an enemy."

Tip for housewives: if you place a shoebox top in the bottom of your shopping bag, the bag won't tip over every time you set it down.

More Coffee Breaks

During World War II, Americans joked at British fondness for tea breaks. Now more than 60 per cent of U.S. industrial workers have coffee breaks on the job. Speaking of tea, did you know there are 3,000 varieties of this brew? Like French wines, they are named for the districts where they are grown.

The high cost of living: "Few things today," says Shannon Fife, "are more expensive than a girl who is free for dinner."

If your dog has an annoying habit of gnawing your slippers or biting his own nails in public, you can cure him by giving him a new canine chewing gum. The seven-inch-long sticks are beef flavored and won't stick to dog, rug, or furniture.

Sobering Product

Another new product: A German physician has developed a pill made of yeast and plant extracts which he claims will keep you sober no matter how heavily you drink. Who on earth would want a pill like that?

Odd ruling: if a member of your family has a bad heart and you buy him a special reclining chair, it is tax deductible—but only if the rest of the family stays out of the chair. If a guy from the Internal Revenue Service calls at your home, don't let him sit in it either!

In some Middle European countries during the 18th century, according to a historical study by the Bon Ami Institute, matrimony held an unusual reward. After marriage a girl no longer had to bathe. Some women today believe a wedding ring gives them the right to show up at breakfast in a sloppy robe and wearing their yesterday's face.

Husbandly Help

A recent survey of 5,000 American husbands showed that three out of four help their wives with housecleaning chores.

The young generation: "Many a teen-ager has driving ambition," points out actor Walter Slezak. "That's why their parents have to hide the keys to the family car."

Life is so unfair to men: note: a man is considered medically obese if his fat exceeds 20 per cent of his body weight; but a woman isn't regarded as obese unless she is more than 25 per cent fat.

It was Ralph Waldo Emerson who observed: "For every thing you have missed, you have gained something else; and for every thing you gain, you lose something."

MARINES HONOR NEW COMMANDANT

IMC Dinner Set Jan. 15; Speaker From N.Y. Coming

Frank M. Thompson, associate of McKinsey & Co., Inc., management consultants of New York City, will be the guest speaker for the January dinner meeting of the Kingston Industrial Management Club, 6:30 p. m. Thursday, Jan. 15 at the Casablanca Restaurant, Marvin I. Millens, president and Donald E. Boyce, monthly program chairman, announced today.

Subject of Thompson's talk will be "Training and Developing the Plant Management Group."

The speaker has been a consultant with McKinsey & Company, Inc., for over two years. Prior to that, he spent four and a half years with the General Electric Company, starting out as a lathe operator in an apprentice training shop and later moving to the Company's Manufacturing Training Program.

gram he went into industrial relations work and was a supervisor of employee relations in GE's Radio and Television Department.

After this Thompson served for one year as a member of the faculty in General Management Research and Development Institute in Crotonville.

Educationwise, the speaker received a BA degree from the University of Virginia and a Masters Degree from the Harvard Business School.

Thompson spent four years in the Marine Corps in the Asiatic-Pacific Theatre during the period 1942-1946.

Reservations for the dinner meeting should be made no later than Tuesday noon through plant contact men, and by contacting house committee chairman San Gulisano at Skyline Manufacturing Co.

Magazine Article Scores Schools On Labor Facts

Organized labor has had to set up its own educational activities because the public school system, by and large, has failed to give labor deserved consideration in its teaching, writes Mark Starr, noted labor leader, in the January issue of the Industrial Bulletin, New York State Labor Department magazine, out this week.

The educational director of the International Ladies Garment Workers' Union, in an article entitled "Do Schools Teach the Facts of Union Life," takes the American school system to task for producing men and women uneducated and misinformed about their labor heritage and their rights and duties as working people.

"The captain who destroys a city is hymned," writes Starr, "but the stonemason who built the city is one of the forgotten men." Deplored the fact that the positive side of union activity is neglected, and the negative side is stressed, Mr. Starr stresses the fact that the labor movement has made notable progress, lauds the unions for their efforts to educate workers in labor matters and suggests that the public school system should be doing a better job in this respect.

Expanding Plant Production Spurs State's Business

ALBANY—Expanding factory production set the pace for New York State's continuing business recovery in November, the State Department of Commerce reported today.

The factory output component of the State's Business Activity Index rose to 125, a three-point rise from the previous month. Total non-agricultural employment advanced, running contrary to usual seasonal trends.

Index Set at 125.
Preliminary figures put the State's November Index of Business Activity, seasonally adjusted, at 133 (1947-1949 equals 100), one point above the October level and two points higher than November 1957. The November volume of business, however, was still two points short of the April-July 1957 peak.

The state's non-agricultural employment averaged 6,100,000 in November, 23,400 more than in October, but still 133,400 fewer than in November 1957. Manufacturing employment rose to 1,790,000, an increase of 12,100 over October. The manufacturing work force in November 1957 totaled 1,918,700.

Insured unemployment showed its customary December rise, with a total of 372,000 persons registered for benefits under the regular program in the week ended December 19. This was an increase of 71,700 over a four week period, and was 61,000 higher than in the corresponding week of 1957. Exhaustions of regular unemployment benefits continued heavy, with 18,651 recorded in the four weeks ended December 19, 12,068 more than in the comparable 28-day period in 1957.

Christmas shoppers brightened the retail sales picture during the holiday season, recording a new high in purchases. Department store sales in New York Federal Reserve District for the four weeks ended December 27 were seven per cent greater than in the corresponding 1957 period. Despite the New York City newspaper strike, sales in the city were up five per cent from 1957, when sales were affected by a subway strike.

The heavy volume of Christmas buying was indicated in a report of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York that retail business was better this season than last in the suburban counties of the New York City area and in the upstate metropolitan areas.

Savings in New York institutions reached a record of $48.7 billion at the end of November. This was $5 million above the previous month and $2.9 billion greater than the November 1957 level. Savings expanded 5.3 per cent in the first 11 months of 1958, compared with 3.3 per cent in the same period of 1957.

Nothing to Crow About

ORANGE, N. J. (AP)—James Cook is fond of animals. So is somebody else. Cook recently bought a pig to keep in his backyard. Some one stole it. Then he bought a dozen ducks. Some one stole them. Then a possum which promptly had a litter of 10. The whole family was swiped. Finally, he bought 10 chicks which grew up into nine hens and a rooster. If you think some one stole all of them, you're wrong. They left him the rooster.

FOR SPRING EVENINGS: JUNGLE FLOWERS IN SILK

Big, bold and beautiful silk prints will dazzle the eye at night during early spring. The color combinations are as stunning as the prints themselves; emerald-and-blue comprise a favored combination. But jungle flowers in olive greens, lilacs and mauves are used as well in softer colorings.

The spring evening gown may be either short or long; both are being shown in designer collections. But even the short dresses are given a very formal handling which makes them correct for wear on elaborate occasions.

And the evening coat has come into its own again. A winter success, it is blossoming for spring as good companion to gowns done in matching silks and prints.

The designs shown here were outstanding in the recent New York unveiling of spring fashions by the nation's leading designers.

From Pauline Trigere's Spring, 1959, collection is this stilette dinner dress and matching coat—swirl with a profusion of jungle flowers vibrantly printed on crisp silk tulle. The coat has wide, fan-shaped sleeves which balance the slimmness of the silhouette, gathering into the shoulders in a cape effect.

Impressionistic blue flowers splashed on sheer silk is the theme of Nettie Rosenstein's short evening dress from her first new collection for Spring, 1959. Loose butterfly sleeves dramatize the smooth bodice line of the sheath, which is covered by a sheer tunic in twin-printed silk organza.

Densely patterned with swirls of primeval green roses on pure Swiss silk is Harvey Bern's Spring, 1959, short evening dress. It is gently rounded with a standaway flange bodice and an Empire waistline indicated by a diagonally placed bow from which balloons a wide panel-pleated skirt.

331 Pupils Occupy Port Ewen School Opened in Early 1957

The Port Ewen School is one of five designated as centers of rural attendance areas under the enlarged city district which became effective Jan. 1.

It had its beginning April 16, 1953, when the Town of Esopus School Improvement Association met for the first time. Consisting of trustees of several school districts in the town of Esopus and interested people, it selected John Spinnenweber for its chairman.

After exhaustive surveys, which took 23 months, the committee's findings were resolved by the commissioning of Architect Rolf C. Dreyer of Poughkeepsie to design a 14-room school.

Consolidation Approved

Previous to this, on March 8, 1953, former districts Nos. 1, 12, 13 and 15 of the Town of Esopus voted overwhelmingly to consolidate and form a new school district—427 to 23.

On July 27, 1955, the people of this new district voted to purchase the present school site for $14,000 with a vote of 126 to 5. The voters of this district once again accepted overwhelmingly this committee's recommendations and passed a $403,000 bond issue by a vote of 230 to 6. The eager acceptance of the recommendations indicated their strong desire for a modern school when one realizes the age and condition of the then four existing wooden schools.

Dates Back to 1830

School No. 1 on Clay road, Port Ewen, was a one-room school dating back to 1830, the oldest existing school in the town and, perhaps, in the county.

School No. 12 in New Salem has been closed for about 20 years.

Example Given

Given below is an example of how this will work on a house and lot with an actual value of $10,000 as located in the City of Kingston or Ulster District 8:

	Kingston Ulster	Actual Value	Assessment	Equalization
Rate	42%	$10,000	$4,200	$2,100
Using these figures the tax rate on assessed valuation for Ulster 8 would be double that of Kingston since the assessed value of the property is only half as much. Therefore, if the rate is $30 per M in Kingston, it will be $60 per M in Ulster 8. The tax on city property will therefore be 4.2 x 30 or $126.00 while the Ulster 8 property would be taxed 2.1 x $60 or $126.00. The tax bills, therefore, show the same amount of tax due.

New Book Notes Area Settlement Of the Palatines

It is not often that a book is written about the people who settled this area, but when such an event happens the good news should be shared. Kenneth E. Hasbrouck, area historian said today in his review of "The Promised Land."

Hasbrouck's review follows: "The Promised Land" by John J. Vrooman of Schenectady is in my estimation the best to date of his successful historical novels concerning the Hudson River Valley and the Mohawk area. The story deals with the French Huguenot and Palatines, beginning with the Court of Louis XIV where his sister-in-law, Madame Elizabeth Charlotte, having been born in the Palatinate strives to do something to aid her homeland which is to be ravaged by the French troops.

His Local Significance
The book has local significance as history records the Palatines first landed in 1709 at East Camp, Columbia County, and West Camp, four miles north of Saugerties in Ulster County. The East Camp settlement later became Germantown. The settlers established schools and churches in each of the settlements in 1710. Sites of Lutheran Churches are marked in both communities. St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church in West Camp still stands at the site of the original church. Christ Lutheran Church has relocated closer to the hamlet of Germantown.

Andre DuBois, a Huguenot, goes as Charlotte's secret representative to the Palatinate where Madame's brother is Elector Palatine. Later Andre marries a German Palatine and from this union comes the heroine of the story, Andrea DuBois. Her parents murdered by the French troops during the invasion of the Palatinate, Andrea is brought up by the Richtmeyers who later merge their future with that of the great Palatine immigration from Germany to England and then to America during the reign of Queen Ann.

Led by John Conrad Weiser, a group of the Palatines arrived after a fearful voyage from England to try to make a living as tar burners for the Queen's Navy. The venture unsuccessful, many moved from their camps along the Hudson River to Albany, Schenectady and finally Schoharie, "The Promised Land." They were farmers and by that means, they did succeed, family after family, but as a group they were ill-fated and their story is one of disillusion and misery. Many in this area are descended from these people.

Recorded in History

The story adheres closely to the historical record of the hardy German Palatines and their "Promised Land." It is certain that the book will appeal to any person who has an interest in the history of the Hudson and Mohawk Valleys and a desire to know something of its people.

The book was published by the Baronet Litho Company, Inc., Johnstown. Other books by Vrooman include: Forts and Friesides of the Mohawk Valley, Clarissa Putnam of Tribes Hill, and The Massacre.

Husbands Are Responsible for Exclusion Of Sacks, Empire Styles in Spring Styles

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Editor
NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's fashion press, 200 strong, learned the welcome news today that clothes are back to normal.

No more chemises, no more trapezes, no more distortions of the female figure are to be foisted on the public this spring, New York designers made plain as they opened a week of spring previews.

Waistlines are back where they should be, or slightly raised, skirts have enough room for walking, suits are comfortable and wearable, hemlines cover the knees, and a woman can go out and buy her 1959 Easter outfit without fear of her husband's rage—at least so far as style is concerned.

All these tidings of joy, it seems, are largely the result of a mass male protest against the grotesque fashions of the last few seasons. When husbands refuse to foot the bills for a new wardrobe, women don't buy. It's as simple as that. And it was the furious roar of husbands from coast to coast that blasted the sack dress into oblivion, wilted the trapeze and made it clear that modern men do not want their wives or sweethearts to look like Empress Josephine, no matter how fascinating that royal lady may have been in her day.

The Empire silhouette, which was the big news of both Paris and New York collections last fall, has been stringently modified for spring. Belts still are often higher than normal, but when this is true the entire waistline area is defined, to leave no doubt as to the natural lines of the figure.

Suits for spring are almost universally short jacketed, with slender skirts eased through the hip line and tapered at the hem.

Jackets may be loose and straight, slightly rounded or bloused—but they are usually brief. The exception is the walking suit, with three-quarter length jacket, which can be worn as a separate short coat.

The dress-and-jacket costume is one of the most popular outfits of spring, the dress usually with natural waistline, the jacket brief and easy.

Technicians Receive First Certificates At Special Ceremony

At a brief ceremony Thursday at 2 p. m. in the City of Kingston Laboratory Library, Mrs. Helen Marcou of 291 Main Street and Miss Martha Young of Boiceville, received certificates upon completion of a 12 month course of medical and clinical technology. Walter V. Lyons, biochemist and director of student training, presided.

This significant exercise was attended by Mayor Edwin F. Radel, the Board of Managers of the Laboratory, representatives of the Kingston and Benedictine Hospitals, County Health Department and Tumor Clinic and the entire laboratory staff.

The two graduates were the first of the recently organized school established by Dr. Herbert Derman of Kingston and the Laboratory Board to train medical technicians. The school serves to supply technicians urgently needed in the growing laboratory field.

In a short address to the assemblage, Dr. Joseph Jacobson gave a short history of the City of Kingston Laboratory which started on John Street in 1934 and has since expanded to a staff of 42 members all serving the health, medical and hospital facilities of Kingston and Ulster County.

The capable technical specialization and the continuous 24-hour service provided by the laboratory, Dr. Jacobson indicated, are not matched by any other laboratory serving an area similar in size. He also said that with their new technical abilities, the graduates possessed the power and privilege of saving life—a most desirable reward for the work and study necessary to earn their certificates.

The Rev. Dr. Frank L. Gollnick of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, offered the invocation. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Martin J. Deary, pastor of St. Mary's Church and dean of Ulster and Sullivan Counties, gave the benediction.

Patients Entertained At Benedictine Here

The Johnny Knapp quartet entertained patients at the Benedictine Hospital Sunday during visiting hours, 2-4 p. m. The program was made possible through the Musicians' Transcription Fund of Local 215, AF of M.

Community Concerts Signs Symphony Again; Membership Drive Set for May 3

The National Symphony Orchestra of Washington, D. C. has been re-engaged for the 1959-60 series of Community Concert Association. John A. McCullough, local association president announced today following the annual meeting of the board of directors at the Governor Clinton Hotel Sunday afternoon.

"The tremendous impressions made by the orchestra in its concert here December 6, prompted the board to unanimously approve scheduling the orchestra again next year," he noted. Artists for the two other concerts in the series are being considered.

The Kingston association which is now in its 30th season brings outstanding artists to Kingston through the organized audience plan of Community Concerts Inc., an affiliate of Columbia Artists Management Inc. All concerts are given at the Community Theatre, Broadway, and the membership is over-subscribed for the seventh consecutive year.

The National Symphony was the opening program of the present series. Roberta Peters, famous coloratura of the Metropolitan Opera, will be presented February 10; and the New York Sextet, vocal group, April 20.

The week of May 3 was established for membership week this year. Mrs. Bernard Forst and Mrs. Lloyd LeFever again were appointed as co-chairmen. A mail campaign to all present subscribers will be conducted early in March to insure all who wish, an opportunity to renew memberships before opening the membership to the public.

Stuart Nall, assistant to the eastern field manager of Community Concerts; and Mrs. Jessie Bradley who will return to assist with the local campaign, were present at the Sunday meeting. Fifteen of the eighteen member board were in attendance. Detailed discussions of campaign and concert presentation problems were held.

All officers were unanimously elected to serve another year. John A. McCullough, president; Stuart E. Munson, Mrs. Bernard Forst, Leonard Stine, vice presidents; Oscar J. Lawatsch, treasurer; Mrs. Louis Kegler, secretary.

There will be two servings, one at 5:30 p. m., and another at 8:30 p. m. The event will inaugurate the newly-built basement recreation room of the YW.

Tickets for the dinner may be obtained at the YWCA. Proceeds will be used to support the National World Fellowship program of the YWCA which, in turn, assists YWCA branches in 26 countries. The program includes lending American staff, subsidizing budgets or training staff members. Because the YW cuts through barriers of race and creed, it is a strong organization for developing world friendship. The cost of this program is met by World Fellowship goals assigned to YW offices throughout the United States.

Attending the session will be Mrs. William Denslow, field secretary for the state LWV and Mrs. Harry Cornwell, president of the New Paltz League, who will serve as consultant to the Kingston group. Mrs. Robert S. Yallum, temporary chairman, will preside.

The League of Women Voters is a non-partisan organization, open to all women of voting age. It aims to promote political responsibility through the informed and active participation of citizens in their government. Anyone interested in further information on the organization may contact Mrs. Yallum.

Regular meeting of Sisterhood Ahavath Israel will be held in the vestry hall on Wurts and Spring Streets, Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. Installation of officers. Mrs. Harold Shorr will sing a melody of Israelite songs. Refreshments will be served. Praising the vigor, drive and personality of women during campaigning, Mr. Kramer also emphasized that women play an important role in politics.

"There could be no Republican organization without the aid of women," Mr. Kramer concluded.

Installed as officers of the organization were Mrs. Bernhardt S. Kramer, president; Mrs. Leslie Hotelling, first vice president; Mrs. Frederick H. Stang, second vice president; Mrs. John C. Port, third vice president; Mrs. John Schomer, fourth vice president; Mrs. Anthony Turck, treasurer; Mrs. Oscar Goodsell, secretary; Mrs. William Krum, corresponding secretary.

A SMALL GROUP IN PRIVATE

Dear Mrs. Post: Not long ago my husband and I had some friends in for the evening. It so happened that President Eisenhower was giving a speech that evening and as we were all interested in hearing what he had to say, I turned on the television. At the end of the program the American flag was displayed and our National Anthem played. The question arose as to whether or not we should have stood up. Some thought we should and others said it was not at all necessary. Will you please tell me what is correct in this situation?

Answer: If in a foreign country, a group of friends together for an evening would probably stand on hearing the Star Spangled Banner, even if there were only a handful of them in a private house. But when at home here in the United States this same group would almost certainly remain seated.

Correct Table Setting
Dear Mrs. Post: When setting a table, is it not customary to place all the silver that will be needed during the meal, on the table—including the dessert implements? A friend of mine tells me that dessert implements should not be included in the table setting and that correctly they are brought in with the dessert.

Answer: In a formally run house the dessert implements are brought in with the dessert course. In a house without service, it is more practical to place them above each plate when the table is set.

Cordiality to One's Children's In-Laws

Dear Mrs. Post: My youngest daughter is going to be married shortly. I have two other married daughters and a married son. I would like to know if it is necessary to invite the parents-in-law of my married children to the wedding.

Answer: Unless the wedding is to be limited to just the immediate families, it is certainly more friendly and courteous to invite them.

Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. One of her leaflets, E-35, "The Well-Dressed Woman," describes clothes for formal and informal parties. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P.O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

'Brain' Will Aid To Detect Faulty Tax Return Form

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—A giant "brain" will help the State Tax Department catch faulty income tax returns this year.

Tax Commissioner Joseph H. Murphy estimated Saturday that the electronic computer, known as IBM 650, would bring in an additional two million dollars a year, besides saving $400,000 in administrative costs.

Here's how the brain works: Information on tax returns is punched into cards. Then a series of "norms" are fed into the "memory" of the brain to indicate what the average return should show.

When the return information cards are pumped into the machine, it makes a split-second test of each return against the established criteria.

If a card is different from set patterns in the machine, the brain prints the identity of the taxpayer and a report on the items that need checking. Then the state's auditors take over.

Chinese Population

Cuba has the largest Chinese population in Latin America. Rosendo Canto, 33, Cuba's ambassador to the Republic of China, is the youngest ambassador in Taipei.

OLD GLORY'S EVOLUTION—The American flag has been studded with pine trees, carried stars in many patterns, and featured variations of the Union Jack. Some of the milestones in the progress of the banner to its present 48-star design are depicted above. The New England flag, upper left, designed around 1700 and carried at the battle of Bunker Hill, featured the British insignia. Predating the Revolution by two years was the Liberty flag, hoisted over the green at Taunton, Mass. The Grand Union flag, featuring 13 red and white stripes, one for each colony, was carried in 1776 by the newly formed Continental army. In 1777, almost a year after the Declaration of Independence, the Continental Congress adopted the "Betsy Ross" banner with its 13 stars and stripes. Honoring the admission of Vermont and Kentucky, two more stripes were added in 1795. The practice of adding stripes was soon discontinued, and the flag reverted to 13 bars. A star continued to be added for each new state. The 48-star field came into being with the admission of Arizona in 1912. It remained unchanged until Alaska's formal entry into the Union this year.

No-Trump Bid Avoids Transfer

BY OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service

The three club response to the opening no-trump demands a three diamond rebid on the Jacoby transfer system.

It should be made with one of three classes of hands. The first class is the diamond bust with which responder wants to play three diamonds instead of one no-trump. He plans to pass when his partner responds to his transfer.

The second class is a hand that he definitely wants to play at a diamond game or slam with his partner as declarer while the third class is a hand with which he wants to offer a choice between diamonds and no-trump as the final contract.

Today's hand is one which clearly calls for the direct raise to three no-trump. South should win East's king of hearts with his ace and play king and another diamond. This will draw all adverse diamonds and South should immediately take the spade finesse.

Group Will Press Bid For Adirondack Route

POTTERSVILLE, N. Y. (AP)—A committee formed here plans to beat the drums for an Adirondack route for the Albany-Canada Northway.

Chairman of the group-to-be known as the Adirondack Northway Committee—is Roger Tubby of Saranac Lake, co-publisher of the Adirondack Enterprise.

Harold Zenger of Glens Falls was chosen secretary Saturday and Vernon Lamb Jr. of Lake Placid, treasurer.

Two routes have been proposed in the Adirondack area for the superhighway. One route would go through the Adirondacks and the other along Lake Champlain.

The Adirondack route has been criticized because it will cross forest preserve land.

The new committee said this route would take only 400 acres "or only two one-hundredths of one per cent of the total preserve acreage." It also contended that the Champlain route would add 33 million dollars to the cost, estimated at about 108 million.

Man, 52, Held Bystander Slain

UTICA, N. Y. (AP)—Police are holding a 52-year-old Negro here in connection with a shotgun slaying Saturday night.

Eddie Scott was arrested shortly after Nick Sanders, 42, was injured fatally by a shotgun blast that climaxed an argument in which, police said, Sanders was only a bystander.

Police gave this rundown of events leading up to the shooting: Sanders and Scott were in a group of men, all Negroes, in an apartment. One of them had a railroad ticket. Scott and others tried to get him to cash it in and use the money to buy liquor. The man refused. Scott went out and returned with a shotgun. Sanders, an onlooker during the argument, answered the door and was struck down by a blast from the shotgun.

AFTERMATH—Train cars were stacked up in this manner as firemen sprayed water on the resulting flames after a 76-car New Haven freight train jumped the tracks near Stamford, Conn. Fifteen to 20 of the cars toppled down an embankment and several others slammed into a standing passenger train. No one was hurt, but all tracks on the main line from Stamford to New York were blocked by the wreckage. They were expected to be cleared for normal service by this morning. (NEA Telephoto)

Seeks Defense Contracts, Greater Share: Keating

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Kenneth B. Keating says he is seeking to obtain for New York State a "greater and more equitable" share of government defense contracts.

New York is not getting its fair share now, he contended. The New York Republican made the statement Sunday in addressing a men's communion breakfast at the Brick Presbyterian Church, and in talking with newsmen later.

The speech was the first public talk in this area by Keating, a Rochester resident, since he took the oath of office last Wednesday. Keating said the contract situation was the "most important New York State issue before me." He said he believed a disproportionately large share of defense contracts was going to companies in California.

Keating said his colleague, Sen. Jacob K. Javits, was equally concerned over the situation.

Smith Resigns Cuban Envoy Post Saturday

WASHINGTON (AP)—The next United States ambassador to Cuba probably will be a career diplomat, diplomatic sources indicated today.

Earl E. T. Smith, who had been in disfavor with Fidel Castro's revolutionary movement, resigned Saturday as American ambassador to Cuba.

The resignation came unexpectedly, only a few days after Smith had returned to Havana from a series of State Department consultations here.

Castro had accused Smith of working with ousted Cuban Dictator Fulgencio Batista, but Washington officials had denied the charge.

Held on Murder Charge Following Brother Shooting

FORT PAYNE, Ala. (AP)—Police have arrested a man on a charge of murder after the shooting of a brother. Both men were here for their mother's funeral.

Sheriff W. R. Evans identified the slain man as Luther Jennings, 39, owner of a ranch located between El Dorado (Tex.) and the Mexican border. Evans said Glenn L. Jennings, 42, of near Fort Payne, was charged with murder Saturday after the shooting.

The two men and six other children of Mrs. A. L. Jennings Sr., including R. S. Jennings of (Route 3) Lockport, N. Y., had come here for their mother's funeral Thursday.

The sheriff quoted R. S. Jennings as saying this transpired:

Luther Jennings was at the house of Warren Smith, a tenant on the Jennings homestead near Fort Payne. Luther had beaten up his father Friday night and demanded his share of the estate.

Glenn Jennings went to the tenant house Saturday and told Luther to "come back and behave." Luther pulled out his coat and said "I'll finish you right here." Glenn pulled out a pistol and shot in self-defense, the sheriff said.

Jerry in 67th Place, Hilda Nears Top 15

Jerry Oster and Mrs. Hilda Murphy, Kingston's hopes in the All-Star Bowling tournament at Buffalo, have reached the half-way mark in the eliminations and are in good positions to reach the semi-finals of the tourney.

Oster has registered 2,376 sticks in 12 games for an average of only 24 pins under 200. He socked 1,235 Saturday and 1,141 Sunday for his total. He is presently in 67th place and the top 96 men of the 288 who entered the tournament will advance to the semi-finals. Jerry had six games scheduled this morning and he will conclude his elimination work tomorrow night on the 7:30 p. m. shift. Dick Hoover heads the qualifiers with 2,589 sticks for the 12 games.

The top 96 men will bowl 12 games on Wednesday with the top 14 on total pin-fall for 36 games joining Don Carter and Buzz Fazio in the match game finals which run from Thursday through Sunday.

Hilda Wins $100
Mrs. Murphy rolled 693 on the first shift but yesterday she jumped to 758 for a two-day total of 1,451 in the eight games. Hilda started the week off right by winning the "Parade of Stars" event and earning $100 to boot. She rolled 191-202 for a 393 total on Friday night in the All-Star review.

The 46 women of the 96 in the tourney who roll the highest scores during the 12-game preliminary round will join Marie Mathews and Marion Ladewig in the semi-finals. Mrs. Murphy is only 50 pins from 15th place and she was scheduled to roll her final elimination block at 2 p. m. today.

Olga Gloor of Norwood Park, Illinois, is leading the women's division with a 1,611 pinfall for eight games. One pin behind her is Donna Zimmerman of Akron, Ohio, who rolled the best series yesterday, 839, including a 244 game.

Oster and Mrs. Murphy have different views about the alley conditions. Jerry said the lanes are hooking quite a bit. Mrs. Murphy said the conditions are excellent and she has no complaints.

The tournament opened Saturday morning at 9 o'clock and almost all the states in the country are represented.

Recs Sweep

Gilligan said Uhl will be available for spot duty tomorrow night but if it is possible, he will not play at all. We have the entire season to think of and I will not play him just to win a game and then risk losing him the rest of the season," Gilligan said. It is expected the flashy soph will be in the starting lineup when Kingston journeys to Arlington Friday night for a non-league contest with Fritz Jordan's Maroon club.

Rick Farrell, director of minor league personnel for the Detroit Tigers, has been with the organization since 1950 when he joined the Tigers as a coach.

Dairymen Shoot 3,114 Series, Forst Keglers Lose 2 Games

Jones Dairy bowlers were red hot at Ferraro's alleys Saturday night as they fired a 3,114 series to bury Orange Recreation of Walden in three games in a pivotal Hudson Valley Bowling league match. While the Jones team was sweeping, Forst Formost had trouble at Ellenville against the Chandra Channel Master outfit and could only win one game. As a result, Jones and Forst are tied for third place in the circuit, each with 35-22 records.

Meanwhile, at Poughkeepsie, the league leading Dutchess Recs blistered the maple for 3,131 to sweep a sub-par Middletown Merchant five. Jake Charter was the ring leader for the Recs with a 708 series on lines of 206-268-234. George Baird had 206-246-210-692 and Phil Versace rolled 164-201-246-611. The winners had games of 983-1086-1062 for their quintet.

The Jones quintet had their best night of the season. They shot 1076-1059-929 for their big series. Jackie Ferraro was the high man but the scores were even. Jackie had fifty games of 227-258-192-677. Chris Gallo was a close second with 200-222-225-647. Fred DiBella, replacing Jerry Oster who is in Buffalo, had 214-234-181-629 and John Schatzel fired 235-179-203-617. John Ferraro shot a respectable 544 to complete the lineup.

Buster Ferraro and Hal Broskie had 591 each for Forst but Frank Greco had 212-222-222-656 and Tim Bilyeu had 604 on

BETWEEN YOU 'N ME

by TITURRAY

Don't be surprised if the professional basketball owners make one of the most drastic rule revisions in years when they meet at the All-Star game break in Detroit, Jan. 23 . . . namely, that a player who's incurred the maximum six personal fouls be allowed to remain in the game . . . "Not fair to rob the fans of a chance to see Cousy or Pettit," they maintain.

Who's still the biggest attraction in the game . . . Lamar Clark, the Utah heavyweight who kayotes them by the dozen, went to his first pro game at Madison Square Garden, asked right off, "Which one's Cousy?"

Give you an idea how big Oscar Robertson is back home in Indianapolis . . . visiting his ma during the holiday break, at an important college doubleheader in town (no involving his Cincinnati team) Oscar is trotted on the court in street clothes for an intro . . . his mother, incidentally, is booked around the midwest with a singing group that concentrates on spirituals . . . and has written four songs . . .

Boston University has a freshman high jumper named John Thomas who's expected to clear 6-11, just under the world ceiling, during the indoor track season . . .

Yankee Bill Skowron's taking no chances in re-injuring the back that's plagued him the last couple of years . . . on doctor's orders, he's swimming four times a week to build up the muscles . . . speaking of doctoring, he claims the World Series film dubbed in another swing in lieu of the seventh game homer he hit to clinch the Series . . . wonder why, with 22,000 feet of film to choose from, they managed to leave out almost every controversial play of the Series . . .

Closed circuit television interests are beginning some long range thinking about an Archie Moore-Sugar Ray Robinson clambake.

Ridiculous that the Pittsburgh Steelers are considering chucking their Pitt Stadium playground and returning to obsolete (for football) Forbes Field . . . because the uphill climb to the stadium is supposed to be discouraging fans . . . They made out of different stuff than the thousands who scramble to see the Pitt Panthers? . . .

Unique fact: the last two winners of the Grantland Rice award as the Nation's No. 1 college football team, Iowa and Ohio State, suffered losses during their regular season . . .

Alex Olmedo's supposed to be postponing a pro tennis career until he finishes his education at Southern California (in a year) . . . he was to go to school at UCLA when he migrated from Peru five years ago and would have been through by now . . . only The Chief, an Inca Indian, was refused admission—he couldn't speak a word of English . . .

Alex double-faulted Perry Jones' performance chart . . . when the Davis Cup captain said in 1955 that The Chief was the world's best amateur in two years . . . after seeing him break three balls in two by the force of his service . . .

Former major leaguer Joe Black explaining how his hurling experience now helps him teach high school in Plainfield, N. J.: "The kids, when they get mad at me, I start talking baseball . . . and they quiet down."

How to get a bid to play in the College All-Star football game (next August): get grounded in Atlanta . . . which is what happened to Utah's Lee Grosscup en route to Salt Lake City from the Senior Bowl . . . because he ran into Otto Graham and was tapped for the '59 game . . .

Between you 'n me, Al Weill, who was going to become Mr. Big in boxing on the Pacific coast, has decided Florida climate's more desirable after all . . . he's settled quietly in Miami far from prying New York investigators . . .

Auburn and St. Bonaventure Only Major Unbeaten Fives

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Except for the NCAA, no one is stopping Auburn these days as its football and basketball teams continue rolling up concurrent streaks unmatched in collegiate history.

Plethora of football teams have had longer unbeaten streaks than Auburn's 24. A bundle of basketballers have won more than 21 in a row, the current status of Auburn's winning streak.

But no one has ever dominated both major sports at the same time the way the Tigers are now.

The basketball Tigers, who bagged their 10th straight of the season 63-54 over Florida Saturday night, and St. Bonaventure (8-0) of Olean, N.Y., are the only major unbeaten in college basketball today. The Tigers haven't lost since Alabama tripped them 83-65 about a year ago.

The football Tigers had a tie with Georgia Tech last fall but have whipped all 23 others they've met since losing to Florida in their sixth game of the 1956 season.

Both, however, have been shooting only for poll and conference recognition because the NCAA has tagged Auburn with probation through 1961 for football recruiting irregularities.

Swinging into another week of conference activity, here's the way the major races look:

SEC — Auburn (3-0) on top, with surprising Georgia (3-1) second after an 80-34 upset of Alabama last Saturday. Kentucky, top-ranked nationally, is 2-1 with Mississippi State.

Southwest — Texas Christian (3-0) the leader, with Arkansas and tied at 2-1.

Atlantic Coast — National powers North Carolina State (5-0) and North Carolina (4-0) running one-two.

Missouri Valley — Cincinnati (3-0) leads second-place Bradley (2-1).

Big Ten — Minnesota leading at 1-0 with five others, including co-favorites Northwestern and Michigan State, tied at 2-1.

Southern — Virginia (5-0) threatened by Virginia Tech (3-0) and William & Mary (5-1).

Big Eight — Favored Kansas State tied with Kansas and Oklahoma at 2-0.

Ivy League — Dartmouth and Princeton (both 3-0).

Skyline — Utah (1-0), challenged by Brigham Young (1-0).

Rocky Mountain — Perennial leader Idaho State locked with Colorado State College at 2-0.

Pacific Coast — California and Southern California both 3-1. Stanford and UCLA a half game behind.

Ohio Valley — East Tennessee (2-0).

Mid-American — Kent State (2-0) trailed by Miami of Ohio, the perennial 3-1.

Yankee — Defending champ Connecticut (3-0).

Offer Lane $3,000

For Manila Contest

TOKYO (AP)—America's Kenny Lane, world's No. 1 lightweight contender, has been offered $3,000, plus expenses, to fight the winner of the Philippine lightweight championship fight in Manila in March.

Filipino promoter Lope Sarreal

cabled the offer to Lane's manager Monday.

Sarreal said Lane, of Muskegon,

STORMING THE RAMPART—American League hockey players, a Bear in the white jersey and Indians in blue, left the ice to mix it with fans in Hershey, Pa. Customers got into the act, too, on and off the rink. The incident was triggered when a paying guest grabbed the jersey of Springfield's Don Cherry with 22 argued with timekeeper about leaving penalty box.

Back's Triumphs

Katsbaan Cagers Slug Wimpy's As Scheffel Hits 40, Smith 35

Ronnie Scheffel and Buddy

Smith, a couple of pretty good players, divided 75 points Saturday night at the YMCA as their Katsbaan Tavern teammates dumped Wimpy's, 107-84, in an A League tilt. In the other contest, Back's scored an easy

77-34 win over Harry's Angels.

The Katsbaan five never trilled, thanks to the phenominal shooting by the two stars.

Scheffel had 15 field goals and made 10 successful free throws in 13 attempts. Smith had 15

field goals and five straight foul points. Rebounding star Frank

Koenig had 12 points and plucked the backboards clean.

Bob Maines (26) and Skipper

Broadhead (25) led the losers.

Champ Holstein found the scoring range for Back's and he netted 31 points in a good show.

Andy Juhl helped with 17 markers. The losers were never in the boxscores:

Detroit Signs

Purdue Coach

DETROIT (AP)—The University of Detroit has ended its long hunt for a football coach and Jim

Miller, a Purdue assistant, was expected to be named to the post today.

Titan officials called a news conference today to name the successor to Wally Fromhart. From-hart was fired Dec. 2 after five seasons at Detroit. The Titans had a 500 record last season and a winning season in 1957.

Miller was an outstanding guard and co-captain on Purdue's 1941

team. He joined the Boilermaker staff in 1954.

Legion Delegates Praise Marie in Visit on Sunday

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP) — Three delegates from the Society of American Legion Founders paid a call on columnist Marie Torre in Hudson County jail Sunday.

Col. William McIntyre of New York City, president of the group, presented Miss Torre with a letter hailing her for going to jail rather than reveal the source of an item in her radio-TV column. McIntyre was accompanied by Maj. Frederick Benham of the Advertising Post of the Legion and Capt. George Maines of Flint, Mich., of the Legion Press Assn. They said the syndicated New York Herald-Tribune writer looked well "and had a fine view of the Statue of Liberty."

Earlier in the day, Miss Torre got a visit from her husband, TV producer Hal Friedman. Miss Torre began a 10-day jail sentence last week because she refused to divulge the source of an item about Judy Garland.

She will be released at 9:30 a. m. Wednesday.

Frost Alerts Citrus Growers in Florida

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
More frosty weather kept Florida citrus growers on the alert Monday after another all-night vigil to protect their crops.

Strong winds fanned cold air from the southern Appalachians into the Southeast. Temperatures dropped to below freezing in northern parts of Florida. Generally warmer weather prevailed in most of the nation. Skies were mostly clear to partly cloudy except for rain areas in the Pacific Northwest and snow flurries across Northern sections.

At Lakeland, Fla., Homer E. Hooks, Florida Citrus Commission manager, said he didn't believe the damage to crops thus far was too extensive. However, he said, another two or three nights of freezing weather could be dangerous.

A warning trend was reported in New England and from the Great Lakes region through the lower Mississippi Valley and eastward across the Appalachians into the middle Atlantic states. Texas also warmed considerably Sunday, with temperatures in the 70s in southern areas.

ZAMORA, Spain (AP)—The toll of dead and missing in the Rivedago flood has reached 153 and still is not complete. Most of the victims were old men, women and children.

They lost their lives early Friday when a dam on Lake Sanabria burst and inundated Rivedago, a village of 500 just north of the Portuguese border.

Royal Lodge Flooded
LONDON (AP)—Prince Philip and young Prince Charles took refuge in a three-bedroom fishermen's inn over the weekend when their own hunting lodge got flooded.

Britain's 10-year-old future king, his father and several friends were shooting wild fowl on the Norfolk Broads.

Graham Is Going Ahead With Talks Despite Illness

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham went ahead with his plans for a world crusade today in the face of advice by physicians to curtail his activities because of an eye ailment.

Graham told reporters that he intends to go to Australia, Indonesia, Malaya, Cairo, Jerusalem and Berlin this year.

He was interviewed after making a zealous talk before the second Combined Texas Baptist World Missions and State Evangelistic Conference in the packed 11,500-seat Memorial Auditorium. Graham's illness earlier caused him to cancel a scheduled appearance at the Dallas First Baptist Church.

May Be Shortened
"The program may be cut somewhat by doctor's orders," Graham said of his projected tour, "but right now I plan to go."

He had announced previously he would go to Rochester Tuesday for a check-up at a Mayo clinic instead of leaving for the West Coast en route to Australia.

Graham insisted he felt all right but "there's something wrong with one of my eyes."

"But I don't know what it is," he continued. "The doctor told me what it is — a long technical name — but I think he's as confused as the Republicans are these days."

"I spent two days in doctors' offices and about midnight last night I got orders not to preach," he said of his cancelled church appearance. "I don't have cancer. I've had no heart attack; I haven't had a stroke and I'm not blind."

Graham said he will speak today at a luncheon to about 1,100 business men and tonight before the church group.

Condition Rare, Serious
Graham's father-in-law, Dr. L. Nelson Bell of Montreal, N.C., said Australia that the eye ailment is a "rare and serious condition brought on by excessive work, strain and stress."

Dr. Bell said Graham's eye was examined at Louisville, Ky., Friday, where he addressed the Baptist Theological Seminary.

The evangelist told his Dallas audience that the "world must solve its problems quickly," noting that Oak Ridge scientists had told him the hydrogen bomb now is obsolete and that we have much deadlier weapons.

"We are living in a world stricken with conflict, frustration and confusion. We're living in a time of revolutions and they are getting closer and closer to us all the time," Graham continued.

C. J. Jeffernan, 76, Dies; Former State Justice
AMSTERDAM, N. Y. (AP) — Christopher J. Jeffernan, a state Supreme Court justice for more than 25 years, died today in a hospital after a lengthy illness. He was 76.

Jeffernan had been serving as a referee for the court since his retirement in 1952. He entered the hospital last fall.

He was admitted to the bar in 1903. He soon became Amsterdam city attorney, and later, corporation counsel. He was elected to the Supreme Court in 1925 for a 14-year term and re-elected in 1939. Beginning in 1933, he served in the court's Appellate Division. Third Department, by appointment of Gov. Herbert H. Lehman.

Work Crews Clear NH Tracks for Rush Hour
STAMFORD, Conn. (AP) — A New Haven Railroad work crew cleared the last two tracks of the right of way today minutes before the start of a rush of New York-bound commuters.

But power in an area hit by a 27-car derailment Saturday was still out, and delays in service for 30,000 commuters ran from 15 minutes to two hours.

Diesels, placed in service Sunday to push the electric trains over the powerless area, were still being used to give Stamford-originating trains a push over the area and to pull other trains through as far as Greenwich.

Says Testimony Implicating 3 in Shooting False

NEW YORK (AP) — A young mother has told a newspaper her testimony implicating three New Jersey men in a fatal shooting was false and was obtained under incessant police grilling.

A copyright story in today's New York Daily News quotes 19-year-old Mrs. Charlotte Wiebold Hansen as saying, "I know that the administration has put that practically on the bottom of the ladder, if not out."

Beame denied that discussion of various possible new taxes was a "smoke screen" and that the city was preparing to raise the sales tax from 3 to 4 per cent.

Much of his discussion with questioners centered on the possibility of legislation of off-track betting on horse races. He said revenue from such betting unquestionably would "substantially solve" the city's financial problems.

Beame said the state, sharing in betting at Upstate harness tracks as well, could obtain large sums.

IBM GIVES $3,500 TO HOME — Mrs. Lloyd R. LeFever, left, accepts check of $3,500 from Miss Carole R. Boekhouse, president of Kingston IBM Club for 1958 on behalf of the Children's Home. Mrs. LeFever is first vice-president of the Home. Gerald E. Shampo, executive director of the Home, right, commended the IBM organization as well as its many thousands of employees for their intense interest in community services. The contribution was made possible by the profits received from beverage vending machines located in the Kingston IBM plant. Shampo added his praise of the local corporation when he said "these funds mean a great deal to our organization, especially because we have so little extra to spend above our operating expenses. It means that we can now go ahead and give thought to areas that need attention badly."

Says Gotham Pay Tax Last of 16 Revenue Proposals

NEW YORK (AP)—Budget Director Abraham D. Beame says a city payroll tax would be the last of the 16 proposed new sources of tax revenue the city would even consider.

Speaking on the WCBS panel show, "Let's Find Out" Sunday, Beame said, "I know that the administration has put that practically on the bottom of the ladder, if not out."

Beame denied that discussion of various possible new taxes was a "smoke screen" and that the city was preparing to raise the sales tax from 3 to 4 per cent.

Much of his discussion with questioners centered on the possibility of legislation of off-track betting on horse races. He said revenue from such betting unquestionably would "substantially solve" the city's financial problems.

Parking Violator Here to Receive 'Time Reminder'

Parking violators, effective this week, will receive "time reminder" dials when they pay their overtime fines at the Traffic Violations Bureau in the city hall.

The dials are designed to be carried by motorists and serve as a reminder of time remaining on the meter at which their car is parked.

Violators will receive, upon paying their fines, a small white envelope which reads: "Parking is a privilege—Let's work together. A message inside the envelope, signed by the mayor, notes that most meter violations are the result of oversight or forgetfulness and are not committed deliberately."

"To help you be fair to yourself and your fellow motorists, the merchant whose name appears on the enclosed 'time reminder' key chain has sponsored this plan."

The messages note that by observing the parking limit normal business processes are aided, the city's parking revenue is increased and parking facilities are provided for a greater number of motorists.

The envelope contains a small park-o-meter with a stationary hour dial and a movable minute hand that enables the motorist to quickly set the meter for the exact expiration time of the meter.

The plan is sponsored by Bob Nadler, Inc., local Chrysler-Plymouth dealer; Colonial City Carpet Company and the Lawrence A. Quilty Insurance Agency. It was created by Friendliness, Inc., of Media, Pa., and Robert Keefe of Kingston is New York State manager for the firm.

The "reminder" plan is now in operation in more than 50 towns and cities throughout the United States.

Warwick Man Robbed
OF $850 Watch in N. Y.
NEW YORK (AP) — Robert Rushmore, 34, of Warwick was robbed of an $850 watch and $40 in cash early Sunday while walking at 64th Street and Central Park West.

Rushmore told police two men approached him from the rear and one stuck an object against his back while the other took his valuables. Rushmore was not injured.
